Sites attend Pioneer Picnic

Nutrition Sites 7 and 13 were among those attending the annual gathering of sites at the "Pioneer Picnic" held Monday noon in the International Petroleum Exposition Building.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nunnelley, dressed in pioneer style, were the king and queen from Nutrition Site 7, which is berthed at Harrison Memorial United Methodist Church.

The group from Site 7 attending the picnic were Vernon and Blanche Dennis, Mrs. Frieda Summar, Mrs. Vesta Blevins, Mrs. Mattie Howard, Sid Timmons, Mrs. Jewel West, Mrs. Hilda Hoss, Mrs. Kathlyn Granks, Mrs. Grace Coleman, and Mrs. Helen Champion. Mrs. Elaine Hinman is director at this site.

Forty-eight persons went from Site 13, which is located in the county building at S. 25th W. Ave. and Charles Page Blvd. Representing this group were Mrs. Jane Johnson and Clos ("Bo") Malone.

Mrs. Juanita Hall, Site 13 director says that the site will be participating in the Arts and Crafts Show, scheduled for May 18 and 19, at the Williams Center offering ceramics, crochet, and many other types of handmade items.

LONG-TIME TULSA RESIDENT IS DEAD

Services for Mrs. Sennie Jane Nunneley, 84, of 3236 E. 5th Place, a native of Berryville, Ark., who came here 64 years ago, will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the General Baptist Church, Keystone. She died Saturday in a Tulsa hospital.

Survivors include five sons, A. H. Nunneley, 6532 W. 1st St., W. R. Nunneley, 1025 E. 39th St., C. H. Nunneley, 5918 E. 3rd St. E. R. Nunneley, Odessa, Tex., and H. L. Nunneley, Midland, Tex.; two daughters, Mrs. Iva Duck, Sand Springs, and Miss Goldie Nunneley, of the home; a brother, 17 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

Interment will be in the Sennett Cemetery at Keystone, directed by the Mobley Funeral Service, Sand Springs.

Dear Grandma —

I too send my special wishes for your recovery. I know that many were thinking of and praying for you on this "Mother's Day" —

we here in Newport send our love,

We had special services in our church this morning for Mother's Day, and Muffie went with Ann and Stacey to the special programs which their Sunday School classes arranged. You would be pleased with the Christian training that our girls get in the Church we attend.

May God bless and keep you — we all pray.

Dear Grandma,

Today is Mother's Day and we have thought about you and prayed for your recovery. You should be comforted in knowing that so many people are pulling for you to snap back; I only wish that we were near enough to visit, but I know that if visitors will aid in the healing process you are as good as new.

home situation than to the other grandchildren. We spent most of the summers with she and Grandpa for awhile, and of course they raised Jerry. So I feel that we knew both Grandma and Grandpa, and they helped shape all of us into better boys. All of her children, grandchildren and friends would say the same.

I trust you remembered us to all of Grandma's people — we were there in thoughts and prayers.

Love,
Jim

19 May 1964

Dear Golda,

Words always seem so inadequate at times such as this. I know how you must miss Grandma, especially after these last few years of being together continually, living in the same house. I also know that despite her age, the condition of her heart, the fullness of her life — a long and happy marriage with bountious children and grandchildren — Grandma's passing is a shock to all of us. We are saddened, but at the same time comforted by the knowledge that she will occupy the highest place in God's Kingdom, for she lived as He would have us all to live.

I am grateful and thankful that I had the opportunity to see Grandma in February, even though it was a short visit. That is primarily the reason that I didn't take emergency leave and come to the funeral. It is, of course, too late to be of any help to her - it would be for my own peace of mind. Muffie and I talked about sending flowers, but I favored sending money to the heart fund and this is what I am doing. With all of the friends Grandma had, I'm sure she was blessed with ample pretty flowers.

Grandma was closer to Dick, Jerry and me because of our

Dear Donna,

Thanks for the group sheets and latest info, but most of all--I enjoyed our vacation through OK, AR and MO. Your letter was fun to read! And yes, when time allows, I would appreciate any copies you can send.

Now to the older Nunneleys...your Colorado contacts may be in error when they conclude that Joseph, Sr., married Susanna Trent (born 1686) in Chesterfield Co. VA about 1725. Chesterfield Co. was not even formed until 1749. I believe the following applies to Susanna Trent:

Will (p. 215) of Henry Trent, Sr. of Varina Parish, Henrico Co VA
8 Jan 1700 - 1 Apr 1701
Heirs: wife, Elizabeth; sons, Henry, John, William; daus, Mary Cox, Rebecca, Susanna. Wife, executor. Wit: John Blackman, P. LeGrand, Will Thompson, William Blackman

Will (p. 368) of Elizabeth Gee of Henrico Parish, 18 Jan 1731 - 2 Oct 1732
Heirs: grandson, William Trent, son of William; son, John; dau Mary Cox; dau, Susanna Nunnery; dau, Rebecca Wacher; grandaughter, Sarah, dau of John Trent; grandson, Henry Trent, son of Henry Trent; grandaughter (not named); grandson, John Trent, son of John Trent; son, William, executor. Wit: Matthew Branch, William Scott, Walter Scott.

Will (p. 364) of Cesly Shearman, Varina Parish, Henrico Co. VA,
6 Aug 1703 - 1 Feb 1703/04
Heirs: dau, Elizabeth Trent; Rebecca Trent and Susanna Trent (probably grandaughters, but not identified as such); dau, Ann Branch; Cesly Branch (probably a grandaughter, but not identified as such); grandson Henry Trent and he to be executor. Wit: Henry Gee, John Blackman, Thomas Atkins and Will Blackman.

Will (p. 369) of William Womack of Bristol Parish, Henrico Co. VA,
14 May 1718 - 1 Sept 1718
Heirs: daus, Susanna, Phebe, Priscilla and Audria; son, Henry, under 16. Wife, Susanna and she to be executrix. Wit: Richard Womack and Daniel Makcarty.

Henrico Co. VA - 5 Oct 1725 - Orphans Court, 1677-1692, page 54
Daniel Nunnally (who intermarried with Susanna, relict of William Womack, decd) failing to appear in accordance with order of Sept Court is summoned to appear at next Court.

You mentioned a will that someone had that proved that Joseph, Sr. married Susanna Trent...do you have a copy? In 1979, a lady from Springfield, OH (a Womacks) wrote to me and corrected the mis-information concerning Susanna Trent Womack Nunnally that had been published by Joseph Adams Shortal. She was certain that Susannah had married Daniel Nunnally (son of old Richard). It now appears probable that Walter Nunnally (son of old Richard) married Priscilla Womack (dau of Susanna Trent Womack Nunnally and her first husband, William Womack) and had issue:

Edith (Ede) Nunnally Blankenship Grant
William Womack Nunnally d. 1804
Walter Nunnally d. 1773

Now a thought, since it appears that Walter married Priscilla Womack, could Joseph, Sr. have married her sister, Susanna Womack, instead of the older mother, Susanna Trent Womack.

And to Joseph, Jr., - did he marry Mary FRANCES? I rather doubt, without proof, that Jr's wife would have been shown in deeds by her surname, FRANCES x Nunnally. Maybe her name was Mary Frances, but I feel FRANCES is likely not the surname. I have seen that they had a son William, but no body seems to have found proof of this statement. The only proven children are John and Obediah as far as I can ascertain from many researchers. I think we can "assume" there were others, possible names: William, Anderson, Mary, Elizabeth and Jincey, but not proven. Do you have anything that points to children other than John and Obediah?

Your question concerning the relationship between Richard Jones who provided provisions to the widow and family of Joseph Nunnally is a question I am unable to answer. Bowler Hall also, provided a horse and ground for 12 months and the milk of a cow (Virginia Publick Claims, Amelia Co. VA, p. 67, Nov 1779). The surviving Public Service Claims (Record Group 48) Amelia Co., show that Richard Jones, Jr., and Richard Jones estate had many claims for impressment. If indeed, Richard Jones had been related to the family of Joseph Nunnally, would he have filed a claim for provisions and were such impressed goods payments allowed within a family? I do not know -

Mary "Polly" Nunneley, b 26 May 1846, dau of Joseph Alexander Nunneley and Nancy Easley has been found on only two census records. In 1850, she resided with her father, brothers and sisters in Boston Twp., Franklin Co. AR (28-28), aged four years. In 1860, she resided with her married sister, Ecleo (Ecole/Clooe) Whitley in White Oak Twp., PO Ozark, Franklin Co. AR, aged 14 years. I have the four volume set of Franklin Co. Marriages, 1850-1916 (McPhail). No marriage is recorded for Mary, though others of the family are recorded. I have no idea who she married, where or when, or if...

Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunneley and wife, Izaline were on the 1860 census of Hickman Co. TN with three of their children. I only have the book of this census published in 1982 and have not viewed the film. I do not know the date the census was taken. I believe I mentioned before that I have a copy of the Bible belonging to A.J.B. and Izaline. Their deaths are recorded as:

A. J. B. Nunneley departed this life Sep 15, 1861
I. J. Nunneley departed this life June the 7th 1863

Your reference to Andrew J. B. Nunneley and Nancy White Armstrong (Book Q, page 394 - 15 Nov 1860) must apply to the marriage contract and not the killing - right? Spence's History of Hickman Co. TN (Dotson, reprint, 1981, page 25) states Henry Nunnelly murdered Jackson B. Nunnelly in 1861 with an ax. No mention is made that he was in bed, or in bed with Nancy White Armstrong. Where does the information "both killed by the same person while in their bed together" originate? The following excerpt from a deed of trust (Hickman Co. TN, Deed Book Q, pages 333-337, 19 June 1860) is quite interesting: A.J.B. Nunnelly, in a lengthy deed gave several parcels of land, items and slaves to Izaline to be held by Pleasant Walker for her and the children and "the property given to the said Izaline is to be in full satisfaction for everything she might be entitled to receive from me or my estate. It adds, if Izaline asks for dower, alimony or any other benefit or interest in his property during his life or from his estate, the deed of trust is utterly void. Since he died before Izaline, further court records might be interesting concerning his own estate left only 1½ years later!!

The William F. "Willie" Nunley (29 Mar 1897-?1949) baffles me. You told me once that he may have used the alias, Elmer Rouse. Does the name Rouse, Rose, Ross enter into the family on either side? Your Dad surely maintained contact with him, because of the trip to CA. He knew where he was living, or so it seems. Have you thought that Willie may have married and had child/children who could still be living? He was still "around in the 1930's and a free man. He would have been in his 30's and could have married in AR or OK and divorced. In 1920, Willie would have been 23 years. If the Soundex is available for AR and OK for that census year, have you checked to see where he is living and with whom? It does not bother me one bit to find family members who have had some difficult times. This is part of genealogy, accepting the "Krooks with the Kings" and you really have not proof that Willie did serve time in Alcatraz. The following may show you that Willie, if the stories are true, is not alone:

> Court Order Books - Amelia Co. VA - 1742
> I have taken Joseph Nunnery who has spent 30 days in prison, Theophilus Field, having refused to pay prison fees, so said Nunnery is set at liberty. Thomas Tabb, Sheriff Nunley, AR - we saw the sign about 20 years ago. Took pictures of our daughter, Kathleen, in front of the sign, but could not find a town. Good luck.

I have tried to answer each paragraph of your letter, so hope I have sent something you can use. I will close for now, and please stop long enough to answer the part about Willie. Send anything you have or have heard...and I will put on my thinking cap and ask around for suggestions to further the search.

As ever,

Mary

Enclosing some interesting items from NC. ANDERSON, SON OF PETER...I am not through going over all of the material recently received from a lady in TN, but appears that this Peter died in Warren Co. NC where good old Joseph was a taxpayer in 1771. As you will note, the Anderson, son of Peter, grandson of Barzillai Hewitt, was a child in 1767 when grandpa gave him the cows...more confusion is not what we need.

Dear Donna,

Received your letter of 30 July and wish to thank you for your kind comments regarding my approach to research. To better understand my approach to research, a small story...since about 1950 (yes - over 40 years ago) a man did research on the Rose line (a Tormut Rose who came to Mass. in the 1650s and then to Rhode Island). This man concluded that Tormut and wife, Hannah George had issue, including a son, John, among several sons and daughters. John Rose and wife, Mary Dodge, had several children, including a son Ezekiel who lived in Hunterdon Co. NJ. Ezekiel died in 1768, that county. Ezekiel Rose is my ancestor, proven by his will of 1768 naming children, one of which was Charles was my gr-gr-gr-gr grandfather. It can be proven back to Ezekiel Rose, but no known proof exists beyond Ezekiel for his parentage. This probable error in a genealogical line exists to 1994! I have tried to point out to other descendants of Ezekiel that there is no proof and in fact the will of Mary Dodge Rose Ring (widow of John Rose and Oliver Ring) in her 1751 will in Rhode Island gave to her son Ezekiel, items, and stated he was of New Shoreham, Newport Co., Colony of Rhode Island. Our Ezekiel was in Hunterdon Co. NJ by 1749, per a will of that date when he received L80 from one Thomas Brush. BUT...try to convince those people who had received "a done deal genealogy" from a man who never had any proof and said to his dying day "trust me", it is the right line. My Rose lineage only goes back to Ezekiel who died in 1768 in Hunterdon Co. NJ. I have been unable to prove beyond that man and neither has anyone else. This whole process of mis-information and guesswork over 50 years has made me demand very exacts proofs of any lineage. When I do research for others, I never take their money on my "best guess". Only facts supported by authentic records.

Enough on why I may seem logical...

The letter written by Willie from Honolulu in 1917 was quite interesting. Though he was 19 (would have been 20 in a few weeks from date of letter) he sounded so much like a little boy trying to convince someone that he was an adult and all was well. This boy had lost his father in Jan 1901 at the age of three years + and his mother remarried within the month if the birthdate of Onnie Carter is correct (James Monroe died 21 Jan 1901, Onnie Carter born 3 Sep 1901). What did this almost four year old child think of a new daddy so soon and a new baby brother? Did he live with his mother or other family members? Not being trained, I cannot judge from his letter whether he is a sociopath. It does not seem to pertain hostility toward any person or thing. In fact, speaks of the beauty of the islands and his apparent satisfaction. He also seems to express love for his grandmother, Malinda, by ending his letter with "by by gra Ma I hope we meat again". He considers it their business that some of his girl friends have married (apparently Aunt Lulu must have informed him), but only cares that CHOLOA does not do the same. Guess Choloa was the girlfriend at that time. Wonder what her name was....? You mention in your letter that Willie and Roy Shrum had been drinking and driving around a field near Malinda Caroline's log cabin in 1931 when she had or was dying and that he was AWOL at that time. Since his letter from Honolulu was written in 1917 and the incident while he was AWOL happened in 1931. Was he in the US Army 14 years, more or less? Quite a long time that could have produced many official records. Since we can presume that he died many years ago, have you requested his service records from the government? NOTE - excuse the crowded lines on page one. I never look at my paper while typing and suddenly looked up and noticed...hope you can read .

Now to Alcatraz...as you probably know, Alcatraz is within the Golden Gate National Park System. I am enclosing an item concerning the park and material showing two books that have been published by the association. If you have not done so, it might be interesting to write the group and try to locate records. The address seems to be:

Golden Gate National Park Association
Fort Mason
Bldg. 201
San Francisco CA 94123

1-415-776-0693

I found the address/phone in the 1994 volume of "Books in Print"/publishers at our library. It is also shown in the National Parks Guide 1992 by Michael Frome. If you do contact the Park, let me know their reply concerning old records.

Had a short note yesterday from the lady in TN. They had just returned from a FL vacation and she had not had the time to study the latest material I had mailed to her. They are planning one more trip to VA and NC sometime soon and indicated this will finish their research in those areas. I wonder if she feels that they have enough material for their book?? Hope not, because not a lot has been proven. Just think of all the sons and daughters that are unknown as yet for those very early Virginia Nunneleys.

Did you copy the story of the town of Nunnelly, TN when you were in Bartlesville? If not, let me know and I will copy it for you. It is only one page telling of the establishment.

I have copied the Anderson material that I now have in my book and hope some of it is new. I don't really remember what I had when you were in Bartlesville, but have collected a bit more.

Will close for now and hope you will soon be feeling much better. Confinement during an illness is a necessity to gain wellness...but no fun for a doer like you. Keep the spirit and hope you are "out and about" very, very sonn.

As ever,

Mary R. M. Nunneley

FAMILY GROUP SHEET

Myrtle Nunneley Bond and I are soul mates if such things are possible. She is the 'dear Soul' who tried to take Christian care of my cantankerous? father while he lived in Anderson, Mo after his 2nd wife Viola died. Her life is hard but she makes quilts to give her contentment and is such a good mother. She and Clyde have a lovely, loving family - all of whom live in Anderson with the exception of Wilma Dean who lives in Springfield.

Dear Mary,

Where does my time go? Even though I know, it seems to just 'fly'. When I looked at the date of your answer to my letter I was amazed - it's already June!!!!!

I was in Tulsa from May 1st staying with my daughter Sue from Ogden, Utah where she was instructing for her company -Borden/Meadow Gold for 2 weeks. While she worked, I worked on geneology (one would never guess). Visiting with you was on my written agenda, however, I seem to think I can always do more than is actually possible. I did, however, drag Wilma out to western Oklahoma to meet Wilma and David Gaithright and her sister Linda Kelley. We had a very hurried, exciting, exhausting day. Had a nice lunch, ran to the CO-Op to make copies, marked pages that Wilma wanted, spoke with David when he dared or had time to enter our 'female huddle'. If you don't have copies of the pictures that she gave us - will be glad to send copies (when I can). They were just getting over the Mother's Day get together so Wilma was pretty tired. Linda and her husband were leaving for his family in Illinois or Indiana - has slipped my mind at the moment. Wilma straighten me out on the pictures that I had been told were of Lawson H. and Joseph A. (one with dark hair and Lawson with white hair). Wilma says "NOT". That they are both of Lawson H. I'm sure you have both photos or copies thereof..... It takes everyones input to catch these minor/major mistakes. Was so pleased to know.

From there we went back to Ok.City for the night then on to Seminole where I had anticipated meeting Jacquelene Kelley whom I have been corresponding and sharing info. Her mother is through the Eli Jackson Hawkins line. Wasn't able to see her however, her mother was in Okmulgee hospital. Jackies daughter lives near Washington, D.C. and she makes a couple trips there each year - and of course, does geneology while there.

When we got back to Tulsa, the day I had hoped to contact and see you was filled with plans Wilma had anticipated I could do. Ball games of her grandson Jake - lunch with a new friend who was excited about my research and felt there were mutual interests - a evening with my Susie with dinner at Catoosa's Steak House on the river. Sue and I picked up her husband Vern at the airport on Saturday afternoon and the three of us set out for Branson for a week of combined fun and house/business searching in the Springfield area where we plan to retire in a couple of years. Max met us there but he had to go home after 4 days so I took Sue and Vern to Springfield airport on the following Saturday so they could pick up a rental car and drive back to Tulsa to have dinner at Wilma and Cecils' then on home to Ogden the next a.m. I proceeded on to Monett where I visited with Aunt Dovie's 90 year old daughter Jewell Huffmaster whom I had not seen since I was about 5 years old and her daughter Norma Dean, grand-daughter Cheryl and their families. We had such a great visit. Jewell is just a young delight. Life and most everything/one in it is enjoyable, exciting and wanted. Her granddaughter was just moving in next door to her which will assure that Jewell is seen about everyday.

Mary Nunneley - continued June 6, 1994

Saturday afternoon when I arrived I got a motel room and then called her to ask 'if she would have time to talk to a long lost cousin' - she has been waiting for me to get there since I first contacted her in 1991 - I picked her up and we went out to dinner - everybody knows her so we met several of her friends. We were like two kids. Couldn't wait to 'catch up'. When we got back to her house she called Helen Marie Nunneley and her husband Lee Goodnight. They came right over and we all sat around talking, laughing and looking at old albums until we literally wore Jewell out (she is accustomed to being in bed around 8 p.m.). She wanted us all to come for lunch the next afternoon which we did and wore her out again - actually we couldn't have stopped her fun ...... She and her 94 year old man friend were scheduled to go to Branson on Monday - which they did - so she was really tired by time they got home that evening. Helen Marie and Lee had us out for dinner Tuesday evening then we all headed for Springdale, Ark. and Irene's on Wednesday morn. What a blast!!! By that time Jewell was ill. She had a head cold with attending congestion and was really quite tired. We could hardly get her to rest much. Took her home Thursday but on the way back went by Anderson to take pictures back to Myrtle Bond so they got to meet her and it was a really pleasing time for all. Myrtle's husband drew us a map for a shorter trip back to Monett but Jewell kept thinking we were going the wrong way and weren't ever going to get there - we laughed and laughed. How I regret the years we have missed and all the good times that are lost forever.

Regressing a bit - on the way down to Tulsa from here on April 29th - I went to Myrtle's and we had two days of wonderful fun - talking - going to all the cemetaries. Meeting the 92 year old (who looked and acted more like 65) daughter-in-law of Lillie M. Nunneley Robinson - I took pictures of all. Met all of Myrtle's family and some neighbors too - such a good time. I have pictures of all the tombstones that are known family in New Bethel, Hazelgreen and Anderson Cemetaries. Myrtle lived most all her life in her grandmother Holly Clementine's homes. I also have copies of both birth and death certificates on Myrtle's dad Onnie A. - these both confirm that Aunt Clem was a Walker not a Howard. However, her sisters married Howards thus the reason for the confusion. I had quite a hard time convincing Irene on this until I showed her the certificates then we had quite a time discussing the Howard connections. It was great. I also took a tiny 'tin type' that Irene had to Walmart and had a copy made - the copy is better than the original - of Malinda Caroline when she was young. Also, Elmo and Kathryn Edwards Nunneley's obituaries from Springdale, Ark. newspaper. Many, many other bits and pieces of information that I am still milling through./ Will share any and all with you if you like - just need time......

I am sending you Family Group sheets on several this time. So hope they are some you do not have. Am currently talking/corresponding with a connection in Colorado who has been doing geneology on Nunneley's for 35 years. Specifically, the William B.Nunneley line. He indicates the Harper-Jones-Frances-Trent families. That according to Varina, Henrico, Va. will that Sussanna, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Sherwin Trent was married to Joseph Nunnally, Sr. - that they married in Chesterfield Co, Va. about 1725 (an interesting point: there was an "Alexander" Sherwin..... is it possible??? ..... a clue to our Alexander name prevalence. Sussanna Trent was born about 1686 in Varina, Henrico, Va. He also presents that Joseph, Jr's wife was named Mary FRANCES (I was of the impression that most consensus is that that was a given name... NEW THOUGHT????) that she was born about 1731 in Amelia, Va. and married Joseph, Jr. about 1751(copy is very poor). He shows William B. as having been born about 1760 in Amelia, Va. and marrying Sally Harper born about 1768 in Amelia, Va. - in about 1780. That William B. died in Pulasky, Ky. on August 16, 1837. Williams' son Anderson born September 20 1782 in Prince Edward, Va. and married # 1: Nancy Richardson on November 8, 1804 in Pulasky, Ky. then # 2: Mary "Polly" Prather on September 13, 1814 in Pulasky, Ky.(I have certified copies of these documents).

Of great interest to me is that: Sally Harper, daughter of Edmond Harper and Mary JONES, Edmond being born about 1725 in Amelia, Va. and died in 1775 in Prince Edward, Va. and Mary born about 1740 in Amelia, Va. and died about 1782 in Prince Edward, Va., grand parents on her maternal side are RICHARD JONES and Ann Merona ------ according to Amelia County Records, Order Book 1776-1780(Wm. & Mary Quarterly) --- on November 25, 1779 a RICHARD JONES produced an account of provisions furnished to the widow of Joseph Nunnally, a soldier who died in the Continental Army, amounting to 163 lbs. .... RICHARD JONES was born about 1710 in Prince George, married Ann Merona about 1735 in Raleigh Parish, Amelia, Va. He died in February, 1772 in Raleigh Parish, Amelia, Va. QUESTION!!! Could there be a direct connection? Could the Richard Jones in the Order Book be a son of RICHARD JONES who died ABOUT 1772 OR could it be that RICHARD JONES's "ABOUT" death date is broader and might/could actually be the same RICHARD JONES. Give me your thinking and in the mean time I will be knee deep in searching for proof one way or the other. !!!!!! I just zeroed in on your quote from Va.Public Claims,Pg 69,Jan 20, 1779 as Richard Jones, Junr............

In continuation of the saga of William B. - His son Anderson born About 1782 in Prince Edward, Va. and died November 23, 1859 in Pulasky, Ky(from death records in Pulasky Co.) had, by his first wife, (taken from records of Pulasky Co. & published by that Historical Society in Somerset, Ky - speculation only) a daughter named Elizabeth born October 24, 1807 in Pulaski Co, Ky. She married Wm. 'Will' Graves - is buried in Rock Lick Baptist Church cemetary- on April 27, 1825 (Ihave certified copy of this document). Other children were: William who married Ursula Barclay on Jan 6, 1834; Dudley who married Patsy Hudson November 15, 1838; and Amanda Jane who married Thomas L.W. Sawyer in 1859.

Reference your question on my dates for Vennie McCollough - on Pg. 68 of Jessie Bert McCollough, Medford, Oregon "Descendants of Moses McCollough" - he states she was born July 29, 1898, md. February 22, 1920 to USSERY, Thomas B., b. ? d. October 30, 1960 .

QUESTION! Since I obviously had inaccurate information on Mary "Polly" Nunneley - whom did she marry and when..... & of course, where?

Andrew Jackson Baldwin legally contracted regarding his intent to marry Nancy White Armstrong - it can't be too far fetched to conclude that it, in all likely hood, did take place since they were both killed by the same person while in their bed together. Book "Q", Pg. 394 - November 15, 1860

Incidentally, I haven't a clue who the J.A. Nunneley with our Joseph "Alex" b'date is. Maybe he did marry twice though Myrtle hasn't any information either written or verbal to indicate it. We'll just have to keep looking and listening.

According to Hickman County Obituaries, Pg. 123 Walter S. Nunneley's "Nellie" was born June 8, 1853.

Mary, I have not been able to learn anything regarding my father's brother William (29 mar 1897) F. Nunneley. Since he was a criminal and was incarcerated in Alcatraz during the 1940's I am really at a loss as to where to commence. He used alias' and was imprisoned under one of them. Both Irene and Maxine Wilson attempted to see him on their trip to California but could not because of their not knowing what name. I know my father made a trip there to see him but whether or not he actually got to or not he didn't tell us kids. It's sure an empty space that I would like to fill but really am at a loss to know where or how. Any thoughts you might have I would surely appreciate. My sister Maxine told me that he came to Cleveland, Ok. during the mid 30's and was on the run then. Irene said he was in Dinsmore when Malinda Caroline was dying or had died in 1931. It is so hard to accept that for all the gentle, kind and loving ones there has to be ones who somehow were or became twisted. Did Richard ever hear his Elbert and Sennie comment? My cousin on my mothers side (Carters) wife has worked for the FBI since graduating from high school and I was in hopes she could direct me. Since she is still very young and really not that sure of her boundaries she is willing but really doesn't know how either. I have even considered calling the TV shows like Missing Persons and Unsolved Mysteries but as yet have not gotten to them.

Rouse

I'm curious also, what your thoughts or senses are regarding the continuation of the use of the given name "Lawson" & even "Harrison begining back in or before 1800. I keep looking for families near in both Va. and Tn. Just musing........

I had also, intended, and did not succeed, in going down to Nunley, Arkansas on this trip. Wanted to check out Historical/Genealogical Socities in Polk, Yell, Little River, and Sevier Counties. Since I have been home I caught part of a TV program dealing with the drug cartel in Mena where Nunley is near. Massive amounts of drugs being flown in from So.American countries and how the political powers that be/were/are involved with closed eyes. Both my contact with Ralph Nunley in Athens, Tn. and Caroline/Carl Coats in Venice, Fl. have ties in those counties.

I took close note of your reference to Mary Nunneley who married William Davenport and moved to Lincoln Co.,N.C. A good 'cause' possibility as explanation to why Anderson and Martha went there. Alone these fact mean little ---- combined into a complete "whole" they reinforce and substantiate a total reason to believe and accept Anderson's legitimate right to be listed as Joseph, Jr. son. In every FGS, IGI, personal/correspondent, answer to inquiries, etc., I find an element(s) that are provable but most inportant to me is that when approached from every other line there are very good and fruitful leads to produce everyone's goal - the tie........ Consequently, I never reject anyone's information - I just keep alert - stand ready to see and listen. It has and I believe will always lead to productive results. Very little in this world or life is absolute.........

Forgive me for bending your ear/eyes so much and let me hear from you - s-o-o-o-ner than I have gotten back to you.

Affectionately,

Donna L. Nunley/Nunneley Miller

Dear Donna,

Thank you for the nice material concerning the Nunneley/Nunley families. As you know, everything becomes important as you do research on these families.

I will answer some of the things you said in your letter. Joe Shortal did not list Anderson Nunneley as a son of Joseph and Frances. He, in his manuscript, only listed John, Obadiah and William. Joe felt it possible, but did not include Anderson as a son, even though John, proven son of Joseph and Frances, named a son Anderson. It has been speculated that the William Nunneley, early in Kentucky, was the William of Shortal's manuscript. This William also, had a son Anderson. I have not looked into the William of KY. Court papers in Amelia Co. and Nottoway Co., VA and Hickman Co. TN, indeed, prove that Martha Baldwin who married Anderson Nunneley and Elizabeth Baldwin who married Obadiah Nunneley were sisters. I quite agree that this does not make Anderson and Obadiah brothers! I might add that Shortal's listing of the son William for Joseph and Frances is as unproven as listing Anderson. John and Obadiah definitely were sons of Joseph and Frances per court records in Amelia Co. VA. Tax lists in Amelia Co. VA can give us an idea of the birthdate of Obadiah and Anderson. I believe that Virginia required that when a boy reached the age of 21, he was then considered a man and taxed accordingly. Obadiah first appears on the tax list of 1784, so he was born, probably ca 1763. Anderson first appears in 1787, so should have been born ca 1766. These tax dates are from printed sources and I have not checked the time period prior to these years to see if lists are extant. I believe we can feel fairly certain that Joseph and Frances had more children than John and Obadiah. The following could apply (who knows):

Amelia Co. VA -
25 Feb 1785 - Elizabeth Nunneley, unmarried and about to die, gives to her sisters, Jincy Nunneley and Mary Davenport all of her estate.

2 Jan 1783 - Mary Nunneley married William Davenport. They moved to Lincoln Co. NC. He died 1814 and Mary died 1849.
Virginia Public Claims - page 67 - 25 Nov 1779, Bowler Hall paid for lending a horse and ground and the milk of a cow for the use of the widow and family of Joseph Nunnaly soldier who died in the service of United States.
Virginia Public Claims - page 69 - 20 Jan 1779 - Richard Jones, Junr. paid for providing the necessaries for the widow and family of Joseph Nunnally a soldier who died in the service of the United States viz: 4 barl corn; 320 # pork; 122# beef; 43½# bacon; 4½bu corn; 1 bu wheat; peck salt; 3 bu corn. (Note) these items were given to the Widow between Jany 20 and Nov 3, 1779.

Now to the IGI group sheets on the Andersons. I have ordered those and use them with caution. They are full of mistakes. I know that people are so anxious to share their material that they make it public "before" proofs. The only problem, once it hits the public, just like Shortal's manuscript, everybody believes!

I can't remember what you copied when you were here. I will run through, briefly, what I have on the children of Anderson and Martha and someday maybe we can get together again and copy more. Their children were:

1. John W. Nunneley, ca 1790-1800 - d bef 1850 (not on 1850 census)
   m Mary Ann Easley, b 4 Feb 1796 - d unknown
   John probably died 1848 in Sevier Co. AR without a will. There is apparently an estate settlement in that county in Record Book 3, page 154 (I do not have this, only the reference #)

   Issue:

   Thomas W. Nunnelly, b ca 1820, probably Wayne Co. TN - died bef Apr 1842, Sevier Co. AR. He married 8 Jul 1839, Sevier Co. AR to Catherine Ann Hopkins Davis, widow of Levi. She had children of her marriage to Davis. Thomas Nunnelly and Catherine had no children. Catherine Ann Hopkins Davis Nunnelly married #3 Samuel Gray.

   Anderson L. Nunnelly b ca 1822, probably Wayne Co. TN - died ? 1894 Record Book 15, pg 364, Sevier Co. AR. This may be his will, I do have a copy. Anderson m #1 Jane Pettigrew on 22 Sep 1846, Sevier Co. AR (Book 1, pg 91). Jane died before 1860 (she is not on the 1860 census with Anderson and the children). He m #2 ? - some say Lydia.

   Washington Nunnelly - b ca 1825, probably Wayne Co. TN - nothing further known Huldah Elizabeth Nunnelly b ca 1824, probably Wayne Co. TN - died 16 Jan 1845. From the Ark. Ban(ner?) Feb 12, 1845. Miss Huldah Elizabeth Nunnelley, in her 20th year, eldest daughter of John W. d Jan 16, 1845 at residence of her father, John W. Nunnelley, Sevier Co. Obituary by O S J, Jan 27, 1845. Asks Nashville (TN) Union to copy.

   John Nunnelly, b ca 1833, probably Wayne Co. TN - nothing further known.

   Nancy L. Nunnelly b ca 1833, probably Wayne Co. TN. m 13 Oct 1850, Sevier Co. AR to Ulysses H. Ware. He died in 1878 in Clarksville, TX. He was a doctor and served in the Civil War. After his death Nancy moved to Nashville, TN. They had issue two children, son John C. Ware who m Florence Stuart. Name of the other not known. From History of Hempstead Co. AR, page 444, Goodspeed, 1890.

   Martha Ann E. Nunnelly b ca ? 1832, probably Wayne Co. TN m 17 Mar 1846, Sevier Co. AR to Hansford L. Paxton. Nothing further known.

   John W. Nunneley was on the 1820 and 1830 census, Wayne Co. TN. He was on the 1840 census of Sevier Co. AR. John was a justice of the peace in Sevier Co. AR and is listed as performing some of the marriages in the 1840s.

2. William M. Nunneley b 1795 (per tombstone) in NC (per census records) d 6 Dec 1867 (per tombstone), bur Brearley Cemetery, Dardanelle, Yell Co. AR. Married #1 Ecleo Easley, b 15 Jul 1799, d bef Dec 1844 (she was deceased at the settlement of her father's estate in Dec 1844, Hickman Co. TN). William m #2 Sarah Tidwell in Pope Co. AR; Wm. M. Nunnelly, age 53 to Sarah Tidwell, age 30 on 3 Mar 1851 by E. M. Worthum (book and page not given). Buried at Brearly Cemetery with William is: Sarah T. Nunneley, wife of W. M. Nunneley, 1819-18 Feb 1883. They are buried in Section #1. William M. Nunneley was on the 1820-30-40 census of Wayne Co. TN. He was on the 1850 census of Pope Co. AR and in 1860 he was listed in Yell Co. AR. In the 1861 assessment of slaves in Yell Co. AR, William M Nunnely owned 17 slaves valued at $8800.

Issue of William M. Nunneley and Ecole Easley (from the estate settlement of Thomas Easley, Hickman Co. TN, dated First Monday in December, 1844). To the heirs of Ecloe Nunnely, Anderson Nunneley, b ? - d by 18 Jul 1849 in Wayne Co TN when William C. Nunley as administrator, settled his estate. Listed as heir of Ecole Nunneley.

William C. Nunneley, listed as an heir of Ecloe, nothing further known except he is listed as a registered voter in Dardanelle Precinct, Yell Co. AR on 9 Oct 1868. He is age 47.

James A. Nunneley, listed as heir of Ecloe. A James A. Nunly, age 24 m Sarah J. Harding, age 15 on 5 Dec 1848 in Pope Co. AR (Book A, pg 126). On the slave assessment list of Yell Co. AR, 1861, James A. Nunnley owns one slave valued at $800. He is also listed as a registered voter in Dardanelle Precinct, Yell Co. AR on 9 Oct 1868. He is age 44.

Hill P. Williams - listed as heir of Ecloe. Did William and Ecloe have a dau who married a Hill P. Williams. I have been unable to find a Hill Williams or a William Hill on either the TN or AR census.

Issue of William M. Nunneley and Sarah Tidwell
Unknown. Several children are listed on the 1850 census and 1860 census, but it is not known to whom they belong. Sarah was living in the Nunneley household in 1850, age 30, but William and Sarah did not marry until 1851.

3. Joseph Alexander Nunneley m #1 Nancy Easley and # 2 Clarissa Moore Maxwell

7. Mary Ann Nunneley b 1 Dec 1815, TN - d 3 Jul 1890 - bur Griner Cemetery, Hickman Co. TN. m Robert Evans Griner II, b 22 Jun 1809, TN, d 28 Dec 1876, bur Griner Cemetery, Hickman Co. TN. He the son of Robert Griner and Priscilla Knight. (Meriwether Lewis of the Lewis and Clark Expedition committed ?suicide at the inn owned by Robert and Priscilla Griner on the Natchez Trace. When Lewis died in 1809 the inn was located in Hickman Co. TN. It is now in Lewis Co. TN. Some historians have suspected that Priscilla may have shot Lewis. Robert and Priscilla Griner also had a son, John, who I feel is probably the John A. Criner who married #4 Livicy Nunneley. The name in Hickman Co. TN records is both Griner and Criner.)

8. Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunneley b 1818, TN, d 15 Sep 1861 (murdered by Carter Nunnelly, a black man who was hanged for the crime). Married Izaline J. Nunnelee b ca 1823, d 7 Jun 1863, dau of Edward Nunnelee. It has been suggested that A. J. B. Nunneley also married Nancy White Armstrong. Izaline and Andrew J. B. are on the 1850-1860 census in the same household with their children. Since he was murdered on 15 Sep 1861 and Izaline did not die until 1863, are there divorce papers for them? Also, their family Bible (I have a copy) lists the deaths of A.J.B departed this life Sep 15. 1861 and I. J. Nunneley Departed this life June the 7th 1863.

Issue:

You probably received this from Elizabeth Dannelly Dannelly since you have had contact with her.

It has been suggested that Anderson and Martha also had a daughter named Martha, but this was apparently a mistake made several years ago by someone. Elizabeth Dannelly Dannelly wrote several years ago that the person who gave the names of the children may have made an error.

I have not done a great deal of Nunneley research in the past few months, but continue to gather items as I see them. I am busy now with my side of the family after so many years looking for Nunneleys. It has been rather fun and quite rewarding to find new items on my family. I only wish Mom was still here to "enjoy". She always loved to hear the newest find on her family.

In 1984, I called Irene Johnson and recorded our long conversation. Today I listened to the tape again and tried to pick up more information concerning Joseph Alexander Nunneley II. She definitely said that Alec married Clementine Howard. I am really confused about the Clementine Howard, Holly Clementine Walker and the Mrs. M. J. MOORE. Wonder who he really married? Also, Irene said that Ollie who was a twin to Onnie died as a teenager. Her stone at Liberty Cemetery has no dates, and according to Irene, is just a small flat stone with her name. I would really like to find out more about this Nunneley group.

Better close for now. It was such fun thinking "Nunneley" again. I had lots of notes I had collected (the Missouri cemetery stuff and Carroll marriages) and had not entered it in the books. Glad you wrote to get me started on the group again!

I have added some notes to your computer data. When you have finished with the material I added, I would really like to have the sheets back, since you have some info I need. It was just easier to jot it on your sheets and return to you.

This letter is rather long and disjointed...hope you can glean something new from the pages.

Fondly,

Mary

JESSE READ, PATRIOT- MINISTER

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following was contributed by John S. Polk, 207 Belding, Hot Springs, AR 71901

John S. Polk was born in Little Rock, Arkansas, on August 27, 1942, the second son of James Knox Polk and Vida Margaret (Matthews) Polk. He graduated from Mabelvale High School in Pulaski County, Arkansas in 1960. In 1965 he graduated from the University of Central Arkansas with a Batchelor's degree in Education (BSE). In August of that year he married Winona Sue Jines who had also attended U.C.A. On December 29, 1969, their only child, Susan Elizabeth, was born. In 1973 Polk received his Master's degree in Education (MSE) from the University of Central Arkansas. He has resided in Hot Springs, Arkansas since 1965, where he has taught American history in the city school system.

Jesse Read, Patriot-Preacher

Jesse Read, minister, soldier, planter and church historian was the son of Harmon Read and his wife Mary. Jesse was born in the year 1744 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, where his father was a planter. Harmon Read had bought land in the county as early as 1730 when in October of that year he purchased 240 acres on Roasting Ear Branch from William Lee. On the same day Hugh Lee sold 175 acres on Roasting Ear Branch to Read.[1] William Lee and Read later appeared together as estate appraisors in county documents.

Harmon Read most likely grew tobacco on his plantation, it being the cash crop in the Virginia tidewater. Read's plantation probably numbered only a few hundred acres with only part of it under cultivation as was the practice then. The tidewater farms were for the most part self-sufficient and in some respects bore little resemblance to the huge plantations of the lower South a century later.

— Interesting —

By 1749 the Read family had moved some miles to the southwest and settled in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, where land was purchased near Beaverdamn Swamp.[2] In 1757 Harmon Read sold part of this land to Moses Pendry. Pendry was probably a relative of Harmon's second wife Mary. No record of their marriage has been located, but evidence shows that Mary's maiden name was Pendry.[3] In 1758 Halifax County was formed from Edgecombe leaving Read's plantation in the new county.

Harmon had been married to his first wife in Virginia and by this marriage his children were James, Amy and a daughter whose name is unknown. Five of Read's children by his second marriage to Mary Pendry lived to adulthood. The sons were Aaron, Moses and Jesse. The two married daughters were Dorcas Mobley and Lydia Barker.[4] Jesse may have been the oldest son of Mary Read's children as he was the only child mentioned in his father's will. Harmon Read's will was written October 4, 1760, and reads in part, "I give... unto my loving wife Mary Read all my Real and personal estate... after her Decease...I do hereby give the plantaion whereon I now liveth Unto My son Jesse Read".[5] Read signed the will using his "H R" mark. Witnessing were Moses Pendry, Betty Pendry and Richard Freear (probably correctly spelled Freare). The will was proven in October court, 1767, indicating that Harmon Read lived for some years after its writing.

In the same year that Harmon Read died his son Jesse became gravely ill "so that his friends despaired of his recovery".[6] It was during this time, as Jesse recounted some thirty-six years later, that an important turning point in his life took place. He wrote that he had "this tedious spell of affliction" enduring "great pain of body" and "much destress of soul".[7] One can only guess at what illness caused his "affliction". It was shortly afterwards that he decided as he put it to "feed on the sincere milk of God's word"[8] and began to read in public the sermons of George Whitefield (1714-1770). Whitefield was a British evangelist and organizer of the Calvinistic Methodists in England. He made numerous trips to America and toured the colonies drawing large crowds until his death in 1770. It is doubtful if Jesse Read met or heard Whitefield deliver a sermon, saying only that he had "met with the writings of George Whitefield".[9] Read was also an enthusiastic reader of John Bunyan (1628-1688) who with Whitefield gave him "great consolation".[10]

During the early 1770's Elder Charles Daniel, a Regular Baptist preacher, reportedly the first in the area, made a preaching tour through Halifax County. It was at this point Jesse Read began his conversion to the Baptist belief but, as he later said, he "was not quickly convinced that it was his duty to be baptized".[11] However, Read did donate land to build a meeting-house on Rocky Swamp about ten miles north of Enfield, North Carolina. In 1773 he joined the Separate Baptist group and was baptized by Elder Walker, a Separate minister. On July 11, 1774, Rocky Swamp Church was constituted as a Separate Baptist congregation with a total of eight members under Elders Walker, Tanner and Anthony. Later in the year Jesse Read was sent by the church as a delegate to the Separate Association meeting in Amelia County, Virginia. It was on this journey that Read decided that he was "to preach the gospel of salvation to sinners".[12] On the first Sunday after his return Read preached the first of his own sermons in public at Rocky Swamp meeting-house. On May 5, 1775, he was unanimously elected as pastor and ordained by Elders Sam Harris and Joseph Anthony. Elder Read was to serve as pastor of Rocky Swamp Church for the next forty-five years.

Only two weeks earlier events to the north in Massachusetts were occuring that would not only disrupt the new preacher's ministry for the next few years but affect everyone in the colonies. However, almost one and one-half years passed before Elder Read decided to aid the patriot cause against the king. As independence was declared and the war came closer to home Jesse Read must have seen that there was no alternative but to join in the fighting.

On October 20, 1776, Jesse Read enlisted in the Continental Infantry and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Fifth North Carolina Regiment.[13] He served in the Fifth Regiment until June 1, 1778, receiving his First Lieutentant's commission October 25, 1777.[14] In the summer and fall of 1777 Lieutenant Read served as the recruiting officer for his regiment in North Carolina. In a letter written at Bath to Governor Caswell dated August 31, 1777, Lieutenant Read asked for money and recruiting instructions. His letter read in part, "if you should send me the money, and immediately I can recruit a good many men".[15] He stated he had already recruited six men without spending a "farthing" of public money.

On June 1, 1778, Lieutenant Read was transferred to Captain Clement Hall's company of the Second North Carolina Regiment commanded by Colonel John Patton. The unit was ordered to White Plains, New York, arriving by September, 1778.[16] There the Second Regiment joined the main body of General Washington's army that was encamped and watching Sir Henry Clinton's British troops in New York City. Jesse's brother Moses Read, a private in Coleman's company of the Second North Carolina, was also stationed at White Plains during this period.[17] In late 1778 the North Carolina Brigade was ordered up the Hudson River to West Point to construct fortifications. There Lieutenant Read along with the others suffered severely from the lack of supplies and clothing, especially the officers who were required to supply their own uniforms and other necessities.

The major efforts of the British to end the Revolution shifted to the southern states in 1779. Lieutenant Read's regiment broke camp on the Hudson on November 23, 1779, and marched south. Seven hundred North Carolina Continentals with a large number of that state's militia marched by way of Philadelphia to Charleston, South Carolina. The march was difficult through bitter cold and heavy snows. The troops arrived in Charleston on March 3, 1780, after nearly a three month's march. They were to reenforce General Benjamin Lincoln's army then preparing to defend the city. Shortly after the arrival of the North Carolina troops the British under Sir Henry Clinton laid a seige to Charleston that lasted for forty-five days. The Americans were forced to surrender the city on May 12, 1780. With the fall of Charleston 1,600 Continental troops were captured by Clinton's forces. Among those were the men of the Second North Carolina Regiment including sixty-three officers.[18]

Lieutenant Read and the other captured officers were held for nine months at Hoddrell's Point at the site of Fort Pleasant in Charleston Harbor. The British now under the command of General Lord Cornwallis were at first lenient to the American officers allowing them to keep their swords, pistols and baggage. They were not to be searched, and any servants with the officers were allowed to remain. However, conditions were poor and some did not live through captivity. At the the beginning of 1781, one year after their march south from New York, Lieutenant Read, along with the other officers of his regiment, was transferred by the British up the coast to Virginia. At an exchange point on the James River the men were returned to American hands. Meanwhile, Lieutenant Read had been transferred to the Third North Carolina Regiment on New Year's Day, 1781, apparently while he was still a captive of the British.[19]

During the year 1781 a number of battles were fought in the Carolinas. One of those in South Carolina was at Eutaw Springs on September 8th. The North Carolina troops at Eutaw Springs, including Lieutenant Read's Third Regiment, were commanded by General Jethro Sumner.[20]

The battle started in the morning when British troops were surprised while gathering sweet potatoes. At first the North and South Carolina militias were engaged and fell back under British advance. Lieutenant Read's unit was posted in a wooded area to the right in the second line of battle following the South Carolina militia. The North Carolina Continentals were ordered up for support. Bearing the brunt of the fighting from a reenforced British line, Sumner's men gave way and fell back.[21] Seeing his chance the American commander General Greene ordered a charge by the remaining Virginia and Maryland Continentals which swept the Redcoats back through their own camp. After fighting their way into the camp the Americans started sacking it. The British took advantage of this and counter-attacked. Lieutenant Read was taker prisoner. The weather was hot and muggy; the battle lasted three hours. The Americans counted 522 casualties out of a total of 2,200 engaged. The British forces numbered about 2,000 including a large number of Loyalists. Claiming victory the British withdrew to Charleston. Eutaw Springs has been called the last pitched battle of the Revolution.

Most likely the Americans captured at Eutaw Springs were taken to Charleston. Jesse Read was a prisoner of war again being held this time for at least seven months. On February 6, 1782, a board of officers of the North Carolina Line met in "camp southern army" and it was noted that Read was still a captive of the enemy. The board also offically recorded that Lieutenant Read had been commissioned a Captain on October 15, 1781.[22] This might seem unusual as Captain Read received his commission while in British hands. Captain Read was apparently exchanged in the Spring of 1782 and served until the end of hostilities.[23] However, with the surrender of Lord Cornwallis's army at Yorktown in the fall of 1781 the serious fighting came to an end. The war tapered off to raids on the Loyalist groups that were still active. Final peace came in the late summer of 1783. Looking back over his years of struggle, hardship and captivity Captain Read must have felt it had all been worth the effort.

As many veterans did Captain Read received bounty land grants for his service. On December 20, 1783, North Carolina granted him 3,840 acres in Davidson County, Tennessee.[24] Some years later in 1796 the national government also issued Captain Read a bounty land warrant.[25] He sold both grants.

At war's end Jesse Read returned to his plantation and ministry in Halifax County. Mary Read, Jesse's mother, had died during the war in the summer of 1781.[26] Jesse had married but no record has been located and his wife's name is unknown. In the mid '80's there were a total of twenty-three in the Read household including five males, four females and fourteen slaves.[27] Among the Read children were Lydia, Stephen and Rhesa.

Rhesa Read was born in 1782 and died in 1824 in Halifax County, North Carolina. He was married twice; his first wife was Fanny Carstarphen the daughter of James Carstarphen of Halifax County. Their Children were Martin (1803-1855), Eunice, Lydia and Eliza. Mary Sotherland was Rhesa's second wife and their issue were Ann Rebecca and Nancy Caroline. At his death Rhesa Read left an estate that included land and slaves in both Virginia and North Carolina.[28]

About the year 1805 Lydia, Jesse's daughter, married Henry E. Horne (1785-1842) and settled in Halifax County. The Horne's had three children: Sarah Battle, Jesse Read and Henry Hilliard (1809-1870). Lydia died sometime during 1809.[29] Shortly after his wife's death Henry E. Horne married Nancy Elizabeth Carstarphen, a sister of Rhesa Read's first wife.

In 1817 Henry E. Horne moved his family to Putnam County, Georgia. Later Henry H. Horne moved west to Autauga County, Alabama, where he married his first wife Letha A. Coleman on June 10, 1830. On November 26, 1835, Henry H. married Litia Rodgers after the death of his first wife. When his second wife died too, Horne was married on September 8, 1842, to his third wife Catherine F. Lewis who was able to outlive him by thirty-nine years. Tradition says that in 1849 the Horne family had started west to California but decided while traveling through southern Arkansas to settle there instead because of the good farm land. At least one of Henry's sons, Alpheus, did later continue on to California. Horne had ten children in three marriages.[30] As his grandfather Jesse Read did, Henry H. Horne became active in the Baptist Church. He served as a deacon in the Salem Baptist Church in Columbia County, Arkansas, during the 1850's and 1860's.[31] Horne died January 23, 1870, in Columbia County.

During the 1780's and '90's Elder Jesse Read became known as one of the "ablest" Baptist ministers in his time and place.[32] Elder Read's church at Rocky Swamp grew and set up branches at other locations. Between 1775 and 1803 two hundred and sixty persons were baptized at Rocky Swamp. In 1803 the church numbered about one hundred in its membership. Rocky Swamp Church was a member of the Kehukee Association. The Association had been constituted in November of 1769.

A branch of Elder Read's church was set up at Davis's Meetinghouse in Halifax County, near Conoconnara Creek. Services were held the first Sunday in each month. Presumably Jesse Read was their pastor. Another branch church was established at Quonkey also in Halifax County. For some years Elder Read held services at Quonkey Chapel two days a month. In July, 1799, Quonkey Chapel petitioned their mother church at Rocky Swamp for a separation to constitute their own congregration. The petition was granted and in 1803 their group numbered fifty-four; however Elder Read still served as the pastor aided by Elder McAllister Vinson.[33] The branch churches were typical of small congregrations of the time being small, poor and widely scattered.

In 1803 Elder Jesse Read along with Elder Lemuel Burkitt, Baptist minister from Northampton County, North Carolina, wrote what has been called, "the first purely historical work published in the state" of North Carolina.[34] The book entitled A Concise History of the Kehukee Baptist Association is an extensive 321 page study of the Baptist churches in eastern North Carolina and eleswhere during the middle and late eighteenth century. The authors introduced the History by explaining that the book was published to show among other things the "Form of Government" of the churches, explain about "Revivals, minister, churches, Confession of Faith" and reveal "useful articles relative to Church History".[35] The book was recognized as a credible work during the period. David Benedict of Providence, Rhode Island, cited the History as an important "source to use" to write a history of the Baptist Church in America.[36]

Elder Read was not only busy with his religious duties but also with tending his plantation which in the 1780's consisted of over 1,400 acres. By 1800 about fifty of Jesse Read's kinsmen lived on or nearby his land. Altogether the Read clan in Halifax County owned forty-eight slaves and of that number Jesse owned nineteen.[37] That was not a large number of slaves compared with the plantations that lay farther south.

By the year 1810 activities in Elder Read's household seem to have slowed considerably with only five persons remaining in his immediate family. He had also sold over one-quarter of his slaves.[38]

In ill health and advanced age Jesse Read wrote his will in the summer of 1818. It is not an extensive document and tells little of his estate at the time. Elder Read's wife had undoubtedly died previous to the writing of the will as she is not mentioned in it.

The will reads:

> "In the Name of God Amen. I Jesse Read of Halifax County and state of North Carolina being weak in Body but sound in mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following Viz. First I desire that all My Debts may be paid and in order thereto for my Executor hereafter named, to proceed in Selling of my Property to the best advantage at Public or private Sale as he may think best, and to collect the money due on Notes and my desire is that he may be paid for his trouble, and if anything remains I give it to my Son Stephen Read.
>
> I do hereby appoint my Son Rhesa Read whole and Sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have here unto set my Hand and Seal the 12th Day of July 1818.
> Signed Sealed and acknowledged > by the within Testator as his > last Will and Testament Jesse Read"[39]

Jesse Read died during the summer of 1820 after a long life of service to his church and country. One June 16, 1820, his obituary appeared: "DIED, At his late residence in Halifax County, on the 6th inst. in the 76th year of his age, the Rev. Jesse Read, late Pastor of the Baptist Church at Rocky Swamp Meeting House, for forty-five years. He was confined to his bed for the last six months, but with the most exemplary piety and perfect resignation to the will of his heavenly father, anxiously waiting until his change should come."[40]

Presumably he was buried in Halifax County. It is not known if Jesse Read had an epitaph but an appropriate one might be paraphased in part from the introduction to his book: I am dear reader, your soul's well wisher, and affectionate servant in the gospel.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third article contributed to our ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN by John S. Polk.

In 1974 he submitted two articles: one about the Watkins family and the other about the Horne family of Southern Arkansas.

Jesse Read in this article was the grandfather of Henry Hilliard Horne (1809-1870) of Columbia County, Arkansas.

Of course Rev. Read was not a resident of Arkansas, but he has a number of descendants here today, that will find this information most interesting!

Our many many thanks to Mr Polk for sharing this valuable information with the members and readers of our ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN

Dear Mary,

Where did this past year go? I looked at the date of our last correspondence and couldn't believe how long it has been. Hope you are well and enjoying this lovely Spring. Am looking forward to seeing you at the reunion - was so pleased at the decision to have it again. Hope hot weather stays away for it.

Am enclosing quite a bit that I have uncovered regarding the Wm. M. marriages, children, deeds, POA's, etc. Know you will enjoy wandering through them all. Also, the Criner family.It has been a very interesting search. I had worked concentratedly on them before I went to Utah for the month of February. Shipped home approx. 15# 's - equated to somewhere between 2600 and 2700 sheets, mostly on the Nunneley's. Took me most of March to get it all in protective archival sleeves and binders. Now to enter it in my FTM program on the computer. I have a hardy appreciation for PC's but my paper files are priceless to me so will never give them up though it may make double work. I've never been afraid of work, that's for sure.

Will look to hear from you when you have had time to go over it all. See you in June.........

Dear Donna,

Me again...have had some time to go over all of the material you sent and will send some comments for your thoughts.

Your group sheets for William M. and his three wives:

You show that he had two sons by the name of William (William C. William M., Jr.). Could William M. (Jr ?) be a grandson and not a child of William M. and Sarah Tidwell?? It seems strange that he would have named two sons, William. Unless, the first William was deceased. Do we have such information?

James A. Nunneley, 21 Oct 1824-3 Apr 1902, buried Yell Co. Ark. was also, married to a Missouri D. ____________. She is listed as his widow in the Civil War pension records of Arkansas.

Now the Criner/Grinder mystery...

And the following:

Pope Co. Arkansas US census of 1850 and Marriage Book A, April 1830-Noveember 1849 (by Glazner and McLane, 1966)

page 85 - James Carrol Turnbough, 25 to Mary Ann Hulday Criner, 18, married 6 Jun 1847 by Lewis Thomas, JP (Book A, 101)

page 74 - William H. Jordon, 26, of Yell Co. to Nancy C. Criner, 16, (neither parents or guardian living) married 24 Feb 1848 by Lewis Thomas (Book A, page 114)

We know that Mary Ann Criner Turnbough was a daughter of John and Livicy per court records of 6 Oct 1849 when she, with sister Martha named Joseph A. Nunneley of Franklin Co. Ark as their attorney to obtain their share of the estate of their grandmother, Martha Nunneley (then deceased) of Hickman Co. TN.

We now have six possible daus of John A. and Livicy. The 1840 census of Carroll Co. Ark, indeed shows six female children in the household. The following are possibilities, but certainly need a lot of research before putting to a group sheet:

Rebecca M. (married Uriah G. Stokes) born ca 1827 - TN
Mary Ann (married James Turnbough and Elisha Story) born ca 1829 - TN
Martha E. (married Charles R. Worley) born ca 1829 - TN
Nancy C. (married William H. Jordon) born ca 1832 - Her marriage certificate in Pope Co. Ark states both parents are deceased and that her guardian is also deceased by her marriage in 1848. SO - were her parents John A. and Livicy Nunneley Criner AND was her guardian her uncle, JOHN W. NUNNELEY of Sevier Co. Ark, who was deceased by 1848???
Livicy - born ca 1834 (living with Charles and Martha E. Criner Worley in 1850/census of Crawford Co. Ark.
Jane - born ca 1839 (living with Urish G. Stokes and his wife, Rebecca M.__________ in 1850/census of Franklin Co. Ark.

The census records you sent for the John A. Criner of Henderson Co. TN surely do not apply to the John A. and Livicy Nunneley Criner of TN and Ark. For one thing, the John A., with wife Martha (various census years, Henderson Co.) have a dau Martha J., born ca 1856 (see 1870 census). This would, again, as with William M. naming two sons William, make John A. Criner name two daus Martha (Martha E. Criner Worley, b ca 1829 and Martha J. b ca 1856, both daus of a John A. Criner). Some place in Ark. there must be guardianship records for the minor children of John A. and Livicy. Much work ahead on Criner!

Can't remember if I answered - yes, Jean Nunley Dennison of Nashville is the current Nunley who is working on all lines. She has shared a great deal of material with me. I hope she will do a Nunneley book at some time in the future.

Won't write again before the reunion, but look forward to seeing you then.

As ever,

Mary

SAVE THIS RECEIPT FOR REGISTERED MAIL CLAIMS & INQUIRIES

DECLARATION OF VALUE - Mailers are Required to declare the Full value at th time of mailing on all registered mail articles, whether insurance is desired or not.

WITH POSTAL INSURANCE - Domestic postal insurance against loss or damage may be purchased by paying the appropriate fee. Domestic insurance on registered mail is limited to the lessor of (1) the value of the article at the time of mailing if los or totally damaged, or (2) the cost of repairs. Consult your postmaster for additional details of insurance limits and coverage for domestic and international registered mail. See sections 149 and 911, Domestic Mail Manual for limitations of coverage.

WITHOUT POSTAL INSURANCE - An article may also be sent by registered mai without postal insurance by paying the appropriate fee. No indemnity will be paid for articles mailed without postal insurance coverage.

TO FILE INSURANCE CLAIM - Claim must be filed within 1 year from the date of mailing. Present this receipt. Claims for complete or partial loss of contents, damage or alleged rifling must be filed immediately. The article, container, and packaging must be presented when filing a complete or partial loss of contents or damage claim. Submit evidence of value or repair costs to substantiate your claim. Inquiries on registered mail claims should not be filed for at least 3 months after the date the original claim was filed.

INTERNATIONAL REGISTERED MAIL - Indemnity coverage for International Registered Mail is limited to the maximum set by the Convention of the Universal Postal Union. Consult postmaster and the International Mail Manual for limitations of coverage and individual country prohibitions and restrictions.

Three Centuries
1811 S. Parker Rd.
#105
Denver CO 80231

Dear Three Centuries Publisher Maxwell:

This date we have received your book, Three Centuries of Nunneleys. We ordered the book on 27 February 1995, paid with our personal check #9710 in the amount of $24.85.

We believe the book which totaled seven (7) pages to be a complete misrepresentation of your advertising sent to us through the United States Government Postal Service for the following reasons:

1. No dates included in the seven (7) pages were prior to the year 1810. Three centuries comprise 300 years. This is 1995, therefore records from 1695 to date should have been included.
2. Your advertising informed us that military records would be included. No military records were listed for anyone in the book.
3. Your advertising stated the book would be indexed. No index is contained in the book.
4. You stated in the advertising that the book was a "thorough history of the Nunneley family". Not one grammatically self-contained speech unit is contained on any page of this book.

Your advertisement stated that if we were not completely satisfied you would refund all money unconditionally. We, therefore, request an immediate refund in the amount of $24.85 and the book of seven (7) pages will be returned to you.

We expect your prompt reply with our refund check in the amount of $24.85 and a return to publisher authorization.

Sincerely,

Mrs Richard D. Nunneley

EARLY LAND OWNERS & IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON YELL & POPE COUNTIES in ARKANSAS 1830-1845

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following was copied from: GOODSPEED'S HISTORY OF ARKANSAS, Yell County, page 117 & 118. For many years the various county lines were not established permanently.

"About 1820 Gov. Miller, of the then Territory of Arkansas, and Col. D. Brearley, Indian agent, made a trip over the Territory and took the census of the Cherokees. In their journey, Agent Brearley bought the possession of a French hunter, Joe Peran, who was domiciled near Point of Rocks, then known as "The Dardonnie" (in English "sleep-with-one-eye"). The sound of the name and the peculiar surroundings of the place recalled to mind the Strait of Dardanelles, which induced the agent to change the name and call it Dardanelle, and at this point he established the agency of the Cherokees. After the census, by a call through the agent, every village sent up a delegate to a council held at this agency, at which the Cherokees decided to confine themselves entirely to the north side of the Arkansas River, and at the same time voted to visit the President and have their decision put in treaty form.

In the winter of 1822-23 this delegation accompanied their agent to Washington City. The bounds of the nation were then fixed. Maj. Duval succeeded Col. Brealey as Indian agent, but the latter returned to Arkansas in the winter of 1827-28, to tend to the removal of the Creek Indians, west of the Territorial line, and with him came his son, Joseph H. Brearley, as commisary to the Indians.

The latter, in 1831, became a permanent citizen at Dardanelle. On his way up, in 1827, he had stopped a short time at Dardanelle, where he had found white inhabitants very few.

Pearson Brearley, his brother, was then living there, also John Wade (his hireling), and the Widow Greenwood and her son and daughter, Radford Greenwood, and Malinda Greenwood.

The Cherokees were in hearing distance on the opposite bank of the river, but the nearest white neighbors south of the river were eleven miles above-- James, Henry and King Stinnett, Maurice Brown and Isaac Hensley.

Nine miles below, on the Lake Bayou, were Asa and Birt Wicker, and at the "Big Fields" were two or three families, and Nick Beatty and the Cardons were farther down the river.

At Chickalah, nine miles back, was Brown, a blacksmith. In the spring of 1828 the Cherokees, by treaty, exchanged the land on the north side of the Arkansas River, for the greater portion of the Lovely purchase, which at the time was thickly inhabited by whites,, who were thus summarily ejected therefrom, and scattered to various parts. Many came this way, (to what is now Yell County. ec) among whom were the Morse family, who squatted near Dardanelle Rock, until the land surveys could be completed, so that they could locate.

In the year 1830 the Cherokees finished moving off, in the fall of which year, the United States surveyor, H. L. Langham, completed several townships on the north side of the river. The land on the south side had already been surveyed. At this date furs and peltry still retained princely power with the trader (merchant) as a "legal tender".

The Indians, who occupied the territory now composing this county, immediately before its settlement by the whites and for some time thereafter were intruding bands of Cherokees, the territory in fact belonging to the Choctaws at the time.

Rogers, a Cherokee chief, settled in or near what is now the site of the town of Dardanelle about 1790, with a band of Cherokee hunters and warriors. Some time thereafter Chickalah, another chief, settled at the site of the village which bears his name.

Dutch, also a chief of a branch of the same tribe, made his hearquarters on Dutch Creek, now so called, about three miles above Danville. He included in his hunting jurisdiction all that portion of the Fourche valley, now in Yell County.

These Indians cleared little patches of land in common, which they cultivated separately, each one's share being designated by corner-stones, some of which are to be seen in the neighborhood of Danville.

So far as can be learned, these Indians were peaceable, never having engaged in any wars among themselves or with the whites, but occasionally they were called upon to resist the assaults of the Osages, a warlike tribe living near Fort Smith.

One of the earliest settlements in the interior of the county was made in Riley Township, on the Petit Jean River, above Danville. The first permanent settlement was in 1829 by Elijah Baker.

Josiah Hart came in 1830. The Rileys came in 1831. In 1836 Abraham McCearly settled on Spring Creek, three miles northeast of Danville. There were several settlers in that part of the county before Col. McCearly. William J. Parks, Joseph Gault and William D. Briggs were early near Bluffton. These persons, some of whom are memtioned above, entered land in what is now Yell County prior to 1845. Some of them were among the early settlers, others were probably never permanent residents:

Some of the persons above named each took up several claims in different parts of the county. White men located earliest along the Arkansas River, but general settlements began in the interior. The valleys were most fertile and easily accessible, and furnished homes for the pioneers as they do today for the leading farmers, planters, and business men of the county.

The Civil War put a stop to the progress of settlements throughout the county, but the year 1866 saw enterprise again planted here, and the gradual return of former and the incoming of new settlers, followed with increasing rapidity.

The first marriage in this county, was that of Pierce M. Butler, of South Carolina, to Miss Duval -- her father then being Indian agent. This marriage took place on the lake eight miles below Dardanelle, at the temporary residence

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following was copied from: GOODSPEED'S HISTORY OF ARKANSAS, Yell County, page 117 & 118. For many years the various county lines were not established permanently.

"About 1820 Gov. Miller, of the then Territory of Arkansas, and Col. D. Brearley, Indian agent, made a trip over the Territory and took the census of the Cherokees. In their journey, Agent Brearley bought the possession of a French hunter, Joe Peran, who was domiciled near Point of Rocks, then known as "The Dardonnie" (in English "sleep-with-one-eye"). The sound of the name and the peculiar surroundings of the place recalled to mind the Strait of Dardanelles, which induced the agent to change the name and call it Dardanelle, and at this point he established the agency of the Cherokees. After the census, by a call through the agent, every village sent up a delegate to a council held at this agency, at which the Cherokees decided to confine themselves entirely to the north side of the Arkansas River, and at the same time voted to visit the President and have their decision put in treaty form.

In the winter of 1822-23 this delegation accompanied their agent to Washington City. The bounds of the nation were then fixed. Maj. Duval succeeded Col. Brealey as Indian agent, but the latter returned to Arkansas in the winter of 1827-28, to tend to the removal of the Creek Indians, west of the Territorial line, and with him came his son, Joseph H. Brearley, as commisary to the Indians.

The latter, in 1831, became a permanent citizen at Dardanelle. On his way up, in 1827, he had stopped a short time at Dardanelle, where he had found white inhabitants very few.

Pearson Brearley, his brother, was then living there, also John Wade (his hireling), and the Widow Greenwood and her son and daughter, Radford Greenwood, and Malinda Greenwood.

The Cherokees were in hearing distance on the opposite bank of the river, but the nearest white neighbors south of the river were eleven miles above-- James, Henry and King Stinnett, Maurice Brown and Isaac Hensley.

Nine miles below, on the Lake Bayou, were Asa and Birt Wicker, and at the "Big Fields" were two or three families, and Nick Beatty and the Cardons were farther down the river.

At Chickalah, nine miles back, was Brown, a blacksmith. In the spring of 1828 the Cherokees, by treaty, exchanged the land on the north side of the Arkansas River, for the greater portion of the Lovely purchase, which at the time was thickly inhabited by whites,, who were thus summarily ejected therefrom, and scattered to various parts. Many came this way, (to what is now Yell County. ec) among whom were the Morse family, who squatted near Dardanelle Rock, until the land surveys could be completed, so that they could locate.

In the year 1830 the Cherokees finished moving off, in the fall of which year, the United States surveyor, H. L. Langham, completed several townships on the north side of the river. The land on the south side had already been surveyed. At this date furs and peltry still retained princely power with the trader (merchant) as a "legal tender".

The Indians, who occupied the territory now composing this county, immediately before its settlement by the whites and for some time thereafter were intruding bands of Cherokees, the territory in fact belonging to the Choctaws at the time.

Rogers, a Cherokee chief, settled in or near what is now the site of the town of Dardanelle about 1790, with a band of Cherokee hunters and warriors. Some time thereafter Chickalah, another chief, settled at the site of the village which bears his name.

Dutch, also a chief of a branch of the same tribe, made his hearquarters on Dutch Creek, now so called, about three miles above Danville. He included in his hunting jurisdiction all that portion of the Fourche valley, now in Yell County.

These Indians cleared little patches of land in common, which they cultivated separately, each one's share being designated by corner-stones, some of which are to be seen in the neighborhood of Danville.

So far as can be learned, these Indians were peaceable, never having engaged in any wars among themselves or with the whites, but occasionally they were called upon to resist the assaults of the Osages, a warlike tribe living near Fort Smith.

One of the earliest settlements in the interior of the county was made in Riley Township, on the Petit Jean River, above Danville. The first permanent settlement was in 1829 by Elijah Baker.

Josiah Hart came in 1830. The Rileys came in 1831. In 1836 Abraham McCearly settled on Spring Creek, three miles northeast of Danville. There were several settlers in that part of the county before Col. McCearly. William J. Parks, Joseph Gault and William D. Briggs were early near Bluffton. These persons, some of whom are memtioned above, entered land in what is now Yell County prior to 1845. Some of them were among the early settlers, others were probably never permanent residents:

Some of the persons above named each took up several claims in different parts of the county. White men located earliest along the Arkansas River, but general settlements began in the interior. The valleys were most fertile and easily accessible, and furnished homes for the pioneers as they do today for the leading farmers, planters, and business men of the county.

The Civil War put a stop to the progress of settlements throughout the county, but the year 1866 saw enterprise again planted here, and the gradual return of former and the incoming of new settlers, followed with increasing rapidity.

The first marriage in this county, was that of Pierce M. Butler, of South Carolina, to Miss Duval -- her father then being Indian agent. This marriage took place on the lake eight miles below Dardanelle, at the temporary residence possibility of future persecution of American Christians. Would I stand true to the cause of Christ in the face of such suffering and oppression and death?

The icing on the cake for my tour came with our two-day visit to Egypt, where we were thrust into the ancient world of Pharoahs, Pyramids, the Nile, and Hieroglypics. We spent a day in Cairo, Egypt's capital, teeming with 12 million people. Traffic is indeed an experience long remembered.

We viewed many of Cairo's mosques and churches, but more impressive than them all was the Museum of Antiquities. This museum, located beside the Nile in downtown Cairo, is bulging with Pharaonic artifacts.

Looking Back

By Norma Ross

While, according to the Bible story, Lot's wife met a most unfortunate end while looking back, for most of us this custom contains far more pleasure than pain. Indeed, it can be considered one of the bonuses we earn by getting older.

Recollections of times past somehow become easier if there is a photograph or two around to nudge our memories. With this in mind, the Keystone Crossroads Historical Society hopes from time to time to run such photos within this newspaper, along with asking for remembrances on the readers' part which they may evoke.

Last week's handsome group of students has now been identified with only one exception, the young man first on the left, top row. Anyone who can tell his identity is asked to contact the newspaper or myself.

Helping in this project were Mrs. John (Delorus) Matthews, who originally contributed the picture, and two other longtime Keystone area residents, R.S. Veteto and his wife, the former Marjorie Cook.

By coincidence, the year of the photo taking and that of the two pages reproduced from a Rigsby School Memory Book (which were given to each pupil at the end of the school year) is the same--1925. Mr. Veteto said that the photo was taken shortly after the beginning of the 1925-26 school year at Keystone, when A.C. Brodell (Mrs. Matthew's late father) had come there from Rigsby as principal. Mr. Brodell is shown 4th from left, top row. Teacher Miss Owens (who later married Emery Black) is 1st on the left, 2nd row.

In 1925, Mr. Veteto was a senior at the school and his future wife, a 6th grader. He does not recall the occasion this picture was made but said it was definitely not one class. It could possibly be a school organization.

I owe Mr. Veteto an apology and have made him one, as he came to offer help on the I.D.'s at 4 p.m. Friday, Feb. 17, waiting for a meeting of K.C.H.S. board members who never showed up. In fact, the meeting had taken place the week before and the article mentioning it had been submitted to appear at that time.. My new vow is to give the exact date in articles as space availability varies and I tend to be long-winded.

If you have a similar photo to share with us or one needing identification, contact any K.C.H.S. board member and we'll give it a try.

The photo is the same one run in the Feb. 16 issue, with the I.D.'s given, now making it much more valuable to us as we continue to explore the past of our area.

Members traveled from different cities and states to attend the Nunneley family reunion held June 8, 9, and 10. The reunion had not taken place since about 1987.

Family Has Three-Day Reunion

Descendants of Lawson Harrison Nunneley and his two wives, Melinda Caroline Carter and Mabel Rogers Lowery gathered for a reunion.

Nunneley moved from Madison County, Ark. to Pawnee County, Okla., Indian Territory in December 1898. He died in 1938 at age 84. The reunion, held for many years at Keystone Lake, and later at Herb and Mary Nunneley's home in Tulsa, was discontinued about 1987. The three-day event was held June 8, 9 and 10. Thursday evening a group went to Discoveryland. Friday included golf at Page Belcher, a luncheon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D.A. Nunneley of Sand Springs and dinner at Goldies Patio Grill. On Saturday, a picnic, children's costume parade and music fest were to be held at Keystone State Park, but had to be moved to South Sand Springs Church of God Recreation Hall due to inclement weather. Following the picnic, a group went to Freddies Steak House for dinner.

OBITUARY

John Orvin Nunneley, who was born Aug. 7, 1901, near Keystone, Okla., died November 23, 1921 at his father's home near Keystone, Okla. He was the twenty-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Nunneley, who have recently identified with the Church of God at Keystone.

John Orvin was sick only a few days with typhoid fever. His death threw a dark shadow of sorrow over the entire community, and especially over his young comrades. He was very much loved because of his quiet and good conduct at home and elsewhere, —so faithful to mother—and he was known as a model young man, concerning good morals. Up to his illness he had never professed Christianity. How sad, especially for one of his type. We are so hopeful he ma his peace with God during his illness. For several days he seemed unable to talk, but tried so hard to say something to his mother, but we never knew what it was. He leaves a mother and a father, six brothers and two sisters, with a number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

His funeral service, which was tender and melting scene, was attended by a concourse of friends and relatives, all of whom seemed deeply affected at that hour's service, and we believe that God strove mightily with the hearts of young men and women during that sad hour. The funeral service was conducted at the Baptist church, by the writer, after which his body was given into the hands of the Modern Woodmen, of which he was a member, to be laid away in the Sinnett cemetery.

OBITUARY.

REEVES.—Mrs. Eliza Reeves (nee Maxwell) daughter of Joel and Clarissa Maxwell, was born in Overton Co., Tenn., May 8, 1835. At the age of four she, with her parents, moved to Illinois, where her father died. Two years after with her widowed mother she removed to Johnson Co., Ark., where they remained five years and then removed to Franklin Co. In Sept. 1852, while on a visit to her grandfather Moore's in Madison Co., she was converted at the Methodist camp-ground on King's river, and on the 24th day of the following October she was happily married to Larkin Bunch of Newton Co. He was a member of the Free-will Baptist Church, a brother of Hon. Bradley Bunch of Carroll Co., a man of good repute. In 1855 she joined the M. E. Church South, at Shiloh and from the day of her accession to the time of her triumphant departure, she was a devoted and useful member. In 1864 her husband, Capt. Bunch, was killed in the battle of Pilot Knob. She was left with five helpless children to raise. By her industry and economy she did this creditably. They are all living and all save one are members of the Church, two Methodists and two Free-will Baptists--all are honorable and respectable citizens. The present Circuit Clerk of Madison Co., is a son of hers. Nov. 28, 1878, she was again happily married to J. C. Reeves of Dry Fork. Uncle John, as he was called by his neighbors, was a leading member of both the M. E. Church South and the community, and a well-to-do farmer. Her home was always characterized by a generous hospitality. It was the home of both Methodist and Baptist preachers. Eight years ago, this writer together with her pastors, G. P. R. Vandzant, P. C., and H. C. Jolly, P. E., had the pleasure of a visit to her happy home. All who came under that roof felt that hers was a happy home, and that the inmates thereof were heavenward bound. I am told by her pastor, J. W Griffin, that she every morning, despite the pressure of business, read a chapter in the Bible. She was held in high esteem by a host of faithful friends whom she, by the consistency of her Christian life, drew about her. And in her last sickness they together with her devoted husband, did all they could to prolong her precious life. That terrible disease called la Grippe together with the pneumonia baffled medical skill, and on April 12, 1891, she died in peace. She leaves her aged mother, four sons and one daughter and her sorrowing husband who says, "she was a good Christian woman." A large company of her neighbors and friends attended her burial conducted by her pastor. Her mortal remains were laid to rest amid tears and sobs from loving friends. Let me live the life of the righteous and let my last end be like hers.

OBITUARY

Elbert's son.

John Orvin Nunneley, who was born Aug. 7, 1901, near Keystone, Okla., died November 23, 1921 at his father's home near Keystone, Okla. He was the twenty-year-old son of Mr and Mrs E. A. Nunneley, who have recently identified with the Church of God at Keystone.

John Orvin was sick only a few days with typhoid fever. His death threw a dark shadow of sorrow over the entire community, and especially over his young comrads. He was very much loved because of his quiet and good conduct at home and elsewhere,—so faithful to mother—and he was known as a model young man, concerning good morals. Up to his illness he had never professed Christianity. How sad, especially for one of his type. We are so hopeful he made his peace with God during his illness. For several days he seemed unable to talk, but tried so hard to say something to his mother, but we never knew what it was. He leaves a mother and a father, six brothers and two sisters, with a number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

His funeral service, which was a tender and melting scene, was attended by a concourse of friends and relatives, all of whom seemed deeply affected at that hour's service, and we believe that God strove mightily with the hearts of young men and women during that sad hour. The funeral service was conducted at the Baptist church, by the writer, after which his body was given into the hands of the Modern Woodmen, of which he was member, to be laid away in the Sinnett cemetery.

HOME AND FIRESIDE

Home, where sunny faces smile, fair flowers bloom, sweet voices sing, is the Eden of the soul. In its pure love forms the golden chain which draws dear ones around the Fireside, and he who neglects the endearments, is a stranger to the purest of joys.

THE MODEL CHURCH.

Dear wife, I've found the model church! I worshiped there to-day;
It made me think of good old times before my hair was gray;
The meetin'-house was fixed up more than they were years ago,
But then, I felt when I went in, it wasn't built for show.

The sexton didn't seat me 'way back by the door;
He knew that I was old and deaf, as well as old and poor;
He must have been a Christian, for he led me boldly through
The long aisle of the crowded church, to find a pleasant pew.

I wish you'd heard the singin'—it had an old time ring;
The preacher said with trumpet voice, "Let all the people sing!"
The tune was "Coronation," and the music upward rolled,
Till I thought I heard the angels striking all their harps of gold.

My deafness seemed to melt away, my spirit caught the fire,
I joined my feeble, trembling voice with that melodious choir,
And sung, as if in youthful days, "Let angels prostrate fall, Bring forth the royal diadem, and crown Him Lord of all."

I tell you, wife, it did me good to sing that hymn once more;
I felt like some wrecked mariner who gets a glimpse of shore;
I almost want to lay aside this weather-beaten form,
And anchor in the blessed port forever from the storm.

The preachin'! Well, I can't just tell all that the preacher said;
I know it wasn't written, I know it wasn'
read.
He hadn't time to read it, for the ligh
his eye

England. Most Whitworth families have immediate origins in England in the counties of Cheshire, Derbyshire, Lancashire, Leicestershire, Lincolnshire, Northamptonshire, Nottinghamshire or Yorkshire. In London since early times there has been an isolated hardcore of families holding the Whitworth name, their relationship to families elswhere has tended to be of high at the higher levels of English society.

Variants of the Whitworth name can be many, a few of those are :

Whitworthe, Whiteworth, Whytworth, Whytworthe, Witworth, Witworthe, Whitwoorth, Wytworth, Whitwort, Wyteworth.

You are advised to check for variants if you are searching for Whitworth ancestors. Particular variants appear to be common to specific locations. Whether or not this is a result of poor or phonetic spelling, dialect variation or any number of factors, it usually leads to a whole set of records that use a particular variant, the same scribe often carrying forward the same variant. Despite some surname reference books, suggesting that other variants such as Whitwood, Whitwell, Whitword exist, I have never found this to be the case.

ORIGIN OF THE WHITWORTH SURNAME

If you consult the standard reference of English surnames (A Dictionary of English Surnames 3rd Edition by P.H.Reaney and R.M.Wilson published by Oxford University Press 1995) the following entry can be found :

Whitworth Elyas de Witewurde 1194 (Surrey) ; John de Whiteworth 1336 (Feet of Fines, Yorks), Leonard Whytworth 1539 (Coroner's Rolls, Notts). From Whitworth (Durham, Lancs).

Other reference books relate to the Old English interpretation of the surname as the habitation of a white enclosure. It is likely that this interpretation is the derivation of the Whitworth surname.

Those carriers of the Whitworth name today are likely to have adopted it as a result of an ancestor who lived in or owned land in some place called Whitworth. Until the reign of Henry VII Whitworth ancestors would have the surname in the form 'de Whitworth'. My research, which relates to the collection of data from the time of the Norman Conquest, suggest that it is a name held by those who were resident in or owners of the lands in two particular locations in Northern England. The first is that area contained in a valley (Whitworth Vale) to the North of Rochdale in Lancashire, now known as the Township of Whitworth. The second is the small village and parish of Whitworth in County Durham, next to and adjoining the now much larger township of Spennymoor.

Records of families who owned and occupied the valley of Whitworth Vale are well documented in the book (Rochdale and the Vale of Whitworth by William Robertson pub George Kelsall 1897). Many other records exist from the time of the Norman Conquest and although the main owners do not represent a continuous ancestral line of one family, almost all who owned the land and lived there adopted the 'de Whitworth' name. Many of the records of Whitworth Vale are linked to those of the closest large town of Rochdale. In Rochdale the name Whitworth would have differentiated between those of the town and those of the Vale and later the township. Even today the surname Whitworth is more prominent in the township of Whitworth and the town of Rochdale than anywhere else. The chapelry at Whitworth was a part of the parish of Rochdale until the middle of the eighteenth century. The present parish church of Whitworth, was built during the last century and overlooks, from its present high vantage point, the township and valley.

The history of the estate and parish of Whitworth in County Durham is shrouded in many mysteries and little is known of its earliest origins. First records of those named 'de Whitworth' exist for that area from as early the thirteenth century but these are few. Some records indicate that families also occupied properties in Woodham, adopting the name 'de Woodham' and sometimes later adopting the name 'de Whitworth'. There were a number noble families who were responsible for establishing the estate, the church and a large impressive hall at Whitworth. The last of those bearing the name 'de Whitworth sold the estate to the Neville family in 1420 who in turn held the lands until they were siezed by the Crown in 1569. There were a succession of minor ownerships after that date but 'Whitworth Hall' owes much of its present day fame to its later occupancy by the Shaftoe family some centuries later. Bobby Shaftoe later had a prominent place in English folk lore and is buried at the church there. Records indicate that those early families who used the 'de Whitworth' name, did so for as long as they held the lands and once they had relinquished ownership had no desire to keep that name. The few families that have been traced, who carried the name to places such as Richmond in the North Riding of Yorkshire, appear to have failed to produce future Whitworth family generations. Today a small parish church exists at Whitworth, it was rebuilt in the nineteenth century replacing a succession of early churches, the earliest of which dates back to the twelth century. The Hall and its its impressive surroundings, which did include until recently a vineyard and brewery, this year were being converted into a country leisure centre. The village properties have now almost completely gone, some of the few remaining properties have been absorbed by the much more recently established town of Spennymoor, which owes its existence to the boom in coal mining industry there.

If you are today a holder of the surname Whitworth it is most likely that your family will be able trace its roots back to the township of Whitworth near Rochdale. The migration from that location has seen large numbers of Whitworth families established in the the nearby counties of the North and Midlands of and eighty acres more or less in ~~tracts~~ three tracts Being the lands whereon the said Anderson Nunneley lived at the time of his death lying and being In Grays Bend of Duck River In the First civil District in Hickman County on both sides of Boothes or Persimon Branch Bounded on the south By the lands of Shared Gray on the east by the lands of George W Gray on the north By the lands of John W Tucker Samuel R Bates & The heirs of Edward Nunnelee On the west By the lands of William Cloyed To him the said Andrew J B Nunneley his heirs and assigns for ever to have and to hold I covenant that I will for ever warrant and defend the title of said lands to him the said Andrew J B Nunneley his heirs and assigns for ever against the lawful claims or claimes of all and every other person or persons whatever In as full deed as ample as I as Executrix as afore said could or Ought to do Witness my hand and seal this 6th day of June 1848

Hazel said this Anderson Nunnery is her favorite clue- she felt he belongs to the family line M.P.Nunnally comes in on- Hazel felt M P had to have some connection to this long line of Nunnery and deeds in Cumberland Co N C. Hazel had hoped M P N would work it out- she said he was GOOD at this work - he calls his family NUNNALLY but she felt that there just had to be some connection with this first AMOS NUNNERY in Cumberland Co N C. This is my judgment. signed-- HAZEL Hazel and I have tried to find where the MOODY comes in--we are sure it is on Ingram side. There was a Moody Ingram. Anderson County } Circuit Court at August Sessions 1832

On this 30th day of August 1832 at a circuit court opened and held for the County and State aforesaid, being a court of record, and having the power of fine and imprisonment, before the Hon. Edward Scott one of the Judges of said courts, personally appeared in open Court Henry Hunley — — residing in said County aged above seventy years, who having been duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of an act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 – That he was born in Chesterfield County Va. and continued to live there at the commencement of the Revolutionary war and during its whole continuance – that he recollects of his being drafted into the service of the United States and was enrolled at Chesterfield Courthouse Va. into a company commanded by Captain King Graves and he thinks Lieutenant Charles Graves, which company was under the command of Major Francis Goode and Colonel Robert Goode, and applicant thinks they were all under the general command of Baron Steuben – From Chesterfield Courthouse the whole army marched up the river to Manchester where they remained but two days, before the British set fire to Richmond and burned it, and then went off – after the burning of Richmond the main American army marched down the river and applicant and about sixty others remained at Manchester to guard the magazine there, where they remained about one month and then was discharged and went home – applicant states that very shortly after his return home from Manchester he was again drafted and was enrolled at ~~Bevills~~ Goodes Bridge in the upper part of Chesterfield County, into a company commanded by Captain George Marcum as well as he now recollects, and he thinks his Brother John Marcum as lieutenant – he thinks in this campaign his company was under the command of Colonel Robison, and the supreme command of either General Stephens or Lawson he does not recollect distinctly which — from Chesterfield applicant with the army marched on through Amelia and Dinwiddie Counties Va. untill they came within twenty or thirty miles of Guilford Courthouse N.C. where they met with the main american army under Genl. Greene — After meeting with Genl. Greene the whole army marched on to within a short distance of Guilford Courthouse where they met the British army under the command of Cornwallis and gave them battle — applicant states that he gave two fires upon the enemy and then retreated with the balance of his division, but before he had gone far from the battle ground he was arrested in his retreat, and was stationed with the balance of his division at a short distance from the battle ground, where they remained untill after the Battle was over — Applicant cannot at this time recollect whether his company joined in the pursuit of the British army after the battle, or whether he remained at Guilford — he thinks however that in about ten days after the battle all the militia from Chesterfield County started home, and were marched in a body untill they reached a small town named Pochahontas in Chesterfield County Va. where applicant and all the others were discharged and went home — applicant thinks that he was in service in this campaign between three and four months — applicant states that shortly after his return from the last campaign he together with all the militia of Chesterfield County were ordered out to and marched down to old Williamsburg where the British lay in their vessels, the British soon moved up the river in their vessels and some of them on land — the american army retreated before them up the river to Cedar point about seven miles below Petersburg where the British overtook and attacked them and drove them up to Petersburg, where they sought refuge in the warehouses, untill the British came on by land and cannonaded the american army ~~untill~~ they drove them from Petersburg and took two of their cannon — on the night after the cannonade at Petersburg the american army retreated to within a mile of Chesterfield Courthouse where it encamped all night and early the next morning it paſsed on through Chesterfield and paſsed on to Fallingcreek church where it encamped one or two days – In the mean time the British army were pursuing them and after burning some of the public buildings in Petersburg came on to Chesterfield Courthouse where they burned the public buildings and the temporary barracks which had been put up for the accomadation of the continental army – at Chesterfield courthouse the British detailed their lighthorse and sent them on to attack the american army at Falling creek church but upon coming there the americans were drawn up in battle array, and the British lighthorse after making a slight effort retreated – the american army then retreated to the coal-pits where they remained three or four days, and then croſsed the James river at Tom. Randalls and then down to Richmond – from Richmond the american army which had been increased by joining with the continentals under La Fayette, marched down to Wiltons in Henrico County, at that place about two thousand, of whom applicant was one volunteered to surprise the British who then lay in Petersburg – this two thousand under the command of La Fayette as applicant believes, marched and croſsed James river at the mouth of Kingsland creek, and marched on to Petersburg where they planted their cannon and commenced firing upon the enemies camp – pretty soon after the cannonading commenced a flag was sent from the British encampment announcing the death of Genl. Phillips, and a declaration that unleſs the americans ceased firing the town of Petersburg should be burned, upon this information the americans ceased firing and marched back to Wilton where applicant and his company were discharged and went home – applicant states that sometime he thinks he was in service this campaign at least two months – applicant states that sometime in August he was drafted again and enrolled at Chesterfield Courthouse into a company commanded by Captain David Patterson of Chesterfield, who was attached to the Regiment commanded by Col. St. George Tucker and Genl. Lawsons Brigade – that the american army marched to Williamsburg and from there on to Yorktown where Cornwallis was then lying - applicant states that he remained at Yorktown during the whole of the siege doing duty and was there at the time of the surrender and after the surrender he marched over as a guard to the prisoners, as far as Winchester Va. where he remained a week or ten days and was then discharged and went home; applicant states that he was in service in this campaign between three and four months - applicant states that between the time of the battle at Guilford and the surrender of Cornwallis he was nearly all his time in the service - the County in which he lived being invaded by the British, he was called out often to repel them and cannot now particularly detail all the incidents of said services - he was also frequently called out before the battle of Guilford, and thinks he has done service as a private drafted man, equal to a period of two years - applicant states that he continued to live in Chesterfield County for three or four years after the war when he moved to Halifax County Va. where he lived about five years, when he moved to Washington County Va. where he lived four or five years, when he moved to Tennessee and has been living in Anderson County where he now lives thirty years - he states that he has no record of his age but believes he is between seventy and eighty years old - he states that he had several discharges but has lost them, and that he has no documentary evidence of his said services nor does he know of any person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his services - he hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not upon the pension roll of the agency of any state &c

Dear Jean,

Your November letter did not overwhelm me at all...but Thanksgiving and Christmas caused the delay in writing. I have finished taking down the tree and etc., and notes are written, so I am back to genealogy.

Thanks for the mass of good material for the Nunneley records. One that came in your latest letter was of particular interest. Several of the Nunneley researchers, including me, have tried to tie our line to the Joseph Nunnally who died while serving in the Revolutionary War. I have wondered the connection between Joseph and the Isham Nunnally. We all assumed that Isham had not married. Indeed he did. Your Mecklenburg record, Court Order Book 2, page 229, 1769, notes Isham Nunnary & Ezabela, his wife, vs Traylor. How interesting! The following also, applies to these two men:

1762 - Amelia Co VA - tithes
Joseph Nunnally's list: ISHAM=1 tithe; John Nunn(?); Will=2 tithes; Hampton Wade's Dist, Nottoway Parish

1771 - Warren Co. NC (old Bute)
Joseph listed as a taxpayer

British Mercantile claim - ISHAM, by bond of L7/19/0, dated 24 May 1774. In the claim it states that Isham was an overseer for Green Duke for several years during the war; was a man of no property at all. He ran away for debt soon after the close of the war from Warren to Mecklenburg, insolvent, and died there several years ago.

Did Isham run away to Mecklenburg Co NC or VA? I suspect VA since it is just over the border and adjoins now Warren Co.

I do like the way you query me...it makes it much easier to reply. I will now respond to your November letter "by number".

1. Daniel, 1685-1788 - I quite agree with you that this Daniel is likely the son of Richard and brother to John and Walter. His birth ca 1685 seems certain, because in Richard's will of 1727, Daniel was an adult. His father gave him the "plant" he (Daniel) had "cleared and built". Daniel was already married to Susannah Womack by 5 Oct 1725 when he was ordered to Orphan's Court concerning William Womack's orphans. The Chesterfield timeline (I believe you have a copy) seems to prove the children of Daniel by his deeds (gifts) to his children. Lynn Collis also, wondered several years ago if Joseph Puckett Nunnally (died Chesterfied ca 1789) could be another son of Daniel and suggested that Daniel might have married #1 a Puckett before he married Susannah Womack. I believe Daniel had at least the following children:

Daniel, Jr. married Lucy Moore, dau of George Hunt Moore
Noel - unmarried ? - died 1784
Obedient - never married - died 1804
Sherman married Martha Hill, dau of Edward Hill

Alexander
David
Drusilla married Jacob Brintle

I believe Joe Shortal made an error in assigning the above children to the wrong Daniel. In your letter of Jan 3, you said you were correcting the family of Daniel Nunnally (1685-1788), son of John and Susannah Womack...I feel sure that this Daniel (1685-1788) was the son of old Richard who died ca 1727.

2. Susanna Trent Womack Nunnally - the will of Henry Trent (Henrico, 1701-Weisiger) calls her Susanna Trent. Her mother's will (Henrico, 1732-Weisiger) calls her Susanna Nunnary. Since William Womack died in 1718, all children minors and Daniel Nunnally was married to her by 1725, it seems likely that Susanna was not yet married by 1701 (the will of Henry Trent). Many years ago, I had a brief note from a lady in Ohio who said that Shortal made a big mistake concerning Susannah. She was, as I recall, a Womack, and that Susanna was a Trent.

The following: Colonial Wills of Henrico County, Virginia, Part One, 1654-1737 by Benjamin B. Weisiger III:

Miscellaneous Henrico County Court Records, 1650-1807, Part II
p. 369 - Will of William Womack of Bristol Parish
To daughter Susanna, cow & calf
To three daughters Phebe, Priscilla, & Audria, each a cow & calf at age at age 16 or marriage to son Henry, items at age 16, and land at 16 if his mother marries, but if she remain a widow, he gets land at 21.
Wife Susanna to be executrix and have rest of estate
Dated 14 May 1718
Wit: Richard Womack, Daniel Makcarty
Recorded 1 Sept 1718

I stated above that all children of William Womack were minors in 1718 - it appears that dau Susanna was of age.
This also answers you question #3 .

4. The maiden name Curtis for the widow Martha Keatt who m. John Nunnally - this came from Lynn Collis. She made up some family group sheets for the sons of Richard and listed the possible marriages of each man. For John she listed: #1 Martha Cate Curtis and #2 Margaret Gates. I have nothing in my papers that I can locate to confirm this information. You might contact her and mention that I gave you the information from her worksheet.

5. See enclosed which applies to Walter Nunnally, died 1784. The Womack BLANKENSHIP was his grandson as you recall, a child of dau Ede by her first marriage to Ralph Blankenship..

8. I do not know the Walthall/Pucket/Nunnally connection. The Bible has always seemed a mystery, but there certainly is a connection somehow. See my mention in #1 that Lynn wondered if Joseph Puckett Nunnally was another child of Daniel (1685-1788) by a wife #1, ? Puckett. Since Daniel was adm of the estate of Abraham Pucket in 1738, it might be good to try to find a will or final settlement of this estate.

This seems to cover the latest questions. Keep them coming. I think you are doing great in "sorting" out the families. Lynn and I came to most of the same conclusions you are offering!

Sincerely,

Mary

Marriage and Death Notices from Milton Newspapers, Caswell Co., 1818-54

by Katharine Kerr Kendall

Milton, a town in northeastern Caswell County, NC, was known by its current name as early as 1796, however the site had been occupied as early as 1728. It was fortunate in having a weekly newspaper as early as 1818, although very few issues survive. The notices which follow were read from microfilm of the originals at the Gunn Memorial Library, Yanceyville, NC. For other information, see Marriage and Death Notices from Milton Chronicle(1841-1883), which appeared in North Carolina Historical Review, July 1969, in an article, "Charles Napoleon Bonaparte EVANS and the Milton Chronicle," by Durward T. Stokes.

In 1619, a year marked by several important events in the Colony, including the assembling of the first General Assembly, the London Company adopted a "Cote for Virginia". The coat-of-arms has been a puzzle and source of speculation to every historian and has been sometimes confused with the proper seal of the Colony itself. It is found as a book plate or frontispiece in nearly all of the printed acts and official proceedings of the Colonial government. It appears in Smith's Generall Historie of Virginia, editions 1624 and 1632; in Beverley's History of Virginia, in several issues of the Virginia Gazette, and in Stow's Survey of London, published in 1633. It was changed slightly from time to time to make the quarterings agree with the arms of the different reigning houses, and after the union of England and Scotland "quartam" succeeded "quintum" in the motto. The illustration is from the title page of Merchants of Virginia in the Virginia State Library.

William[1] Farrar left London, 16 March 1617/8, in the Neptune with Lord De La Warr and reached Virginia in Aug. 1618. Ten persons, including two servants, were killed at "Mr. Farrar's house" on the Appomatuck River in the massacre of March 1621/2,[5] but his patent there was not recorded until May 1625.[6] In 1623/4 when the census was taken he was living at Jordan's Journey,[7] where, aged 31, his muster was recorded jointly with that of *Mrs. Sisley Jordan, aged 24, 1624/5. He had been appointed administrator of the estate of her husband, Samuel Jordan, 19 Nov. 1623.[8] His interest in the widow Cicely Jordan thrust him into considerable prominence in colonial records since she, within three or four days of her husband's death, seemingly, agreed to become, in due course, the wife of the Rev. Greville Pooley, who sought to hold her to her promise. But William[1] Farrar was also a contender for her hand, and the successful one, causing the first breach of promise suit in America of record. The case reached London where the Council for Virginia returned it to Virginia, "not knowinge how to decide so nice a difference" and desired "the resolution of Civill Lawiers."[9] The matter was resolved, Jan. 1624/5, when Mr. Pooley withdrew his suit and gave bond that he would make no further claim. Thereafter Farrar and Mrs. Jordan were married for, at a court held 2 May 1625, Farrar's bond as administrator was ordered cancelled.[10]

On 14 March 1625/6 William[1] Farrar was appointed to the Council and he served there appearntly for the rest of his life.[11] He was named, Aug. 1626, a commissioner "for the Upper Partes kept above Persie's Hundred," with authority to determine whether court should be held at Jordan's Journey or at Shirley Hundred.[12] The appointment was affirmed 7 March 1627/8.[13]

John Farrar the Elder in his 1628 will had bequeathed property in Great Amwell, Hoddesdon and Broxbourne, Hertfordshire, and £20 annuities from the Farrar estate, "Ewood," in Yorkshire, to his son William Farrar and £50 at his return to England. He did return, briefly, for on 6 Sept. 1631 William Farrar of London, Gent., sold his brother Henry Farrar of Reading, Berkshire, for £200 the properties and annuities so bequeathed, and, since John Farrar had reserved these bequests to William's wife and children, the names of "Cecily his wife and Cecily and William his children" appear in the deed.[14] He returned to Virginia and died in 1637, before 11 June, when his young son William[2] received a patent as his heir.

Cicely, whose maiden name is not known, came to Virginia in the Swan with Sir Thomas Gates, arriving near the end of Aug. 1611.[15] She married (1) —— Baley, by whom she had a daughter 1. Temperance*[1] Baley (see BAYLY-COCKE), and (2) 1. Samuel*[1] Jordan (see JORDAN, Samuel), by whom she had daughters Mary and Margaret Jordan.

Issue: 2. Cicely[2], born 1625, mentioned 1631;[16] 3. WILLIAM[2]; 4. John[2], born about 1632, mentioned in his brother's will, was about 1593, but this William was admitted to the bar in London three months after William[1], the settler, had left London for Virginia, and was dead, unmarried, by 1620. The exact degree of relationship between Nicholas Ferrar and William[1] Farrar is unknown but in a poem regarding the interest in silk culture of Nicholas' granddaughter, Virginia Farrar, 3. William[2] Farrar is described as "Her honoured kinsman, Esquire Farrar" (A. L. Maycock, Chronicles of Little Gitting [London, 1954], p. 96). William Farrar is apparently "Cozen Farrar" mentioned in a letter of Nicholas, 17 Jan. 1618/9 (Holmes, The Farrar's Island Family, pp. 20–24).

[16] Holmes, The Farrar's Island Family, p. 123, speculates that she might have been the (2) wife of 1. Peter[1] Montague (see MONTAGUE). It is also possible Cicely[2] Farrar married (1) Isaac Hutchins, who left will dated 23 Feb. 1657/8 (Henrico Co. Minute Bk. 1710–14, p. 51 et seq.), and (2) Henry Sherman, who deposed, 1 Aug. 1690, he was aged 60 (Henrico Co. Deeds & Wills 1688–97, p. 145) and left will 2 Sept. 1695–1 Oct. 1695 (ibid., p. 597), and herself referred to her "great and declining age," 30 Nov. 1702 (Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1697–1704, p. 307) and left will 6 Aug. 1703–1 Feb. 1703/4 (ibid., p. 364). The children of Cecily (——) Hutchins Sherman were: (by 1) [HUTCHINS] Robert, who died under age (Henrico Co. Minute Bk. 1710–14, p. 51 et seq.); (by 2) [SHERMAN] Henry, Jr., unmarried, who left will 20 Feb. 1686/7–April 1687 (Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1677–92, p. 425); John, unmarried, who left will 9 March 1686/7–1 April 1687 (ibid., p. 426); Anne, who married (1) 7 John Crowley, (see SHARP-BAUGH), and (2) 12. Christopher[3] Branch (see BRANCH); and Elizabeth, left will 18 Jan. 1731/2–2 Oct. 1732 (Henrico Co. By her (1) marriage Elizabeth (Sherman) Trent Gee had children: [TRENT] John, married ——; Alexander, married 44. Obedience Branch (see BRANCH); Henry, left will 8 Jan. 1725/6–5 Sept. 1726 (Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1725–37, p. 40), married Edith Harris, daughter of Thomas Harris and 55. Mary[4] Jefferson (see BRANCH), who married (2) 6. John Osborne (see OSBORNE) and (3) Peter Fitz Patrick; Rebecca, married —— Wacher; Susanna, married —— Nunnery; Mary, married 9. Richard[3] Cox (see COXE); and William, left will 17 Oct. 1768–7 April 1769 (Chesterfield Co. Will Bk. 2, p. 204; Order Bk. 4, p. 279), married ——.

prominent in the affairs of Henrico County, serving as lieutenant colonel of militia, justice from the time the county records begin in 1677, sheriff, 1683, member of the House of Burgesses, 1680–82 and 1684,[17] left will 4 March 1684/5–1 April 1685, showing he was without issue and was probably unmarried and naming his "cousins" Mary Worsham, wife of George Worsham, Martha Shipley, wife of Walter Shipley of Charles City County, and William Farrar, Thomas Farrar and John Farrar.[18]

3. WILLIAM^{2} FARRAR (William^{1}), born 1627, as "sonne and heire to William Farrar, late of Henrico, dec'd.," received a patent, 11 June 1637, for 2000 acres in Henrico County, joining on the east the glebe land of Varina, on the west the bottom of [——] Island, on the south the main river and on the north the woods.[19] On 1 Oct. 1649 he gave 200 acres of this, next to the glebe, to his brother John^{2}.[20]

Additional land amounting to 335 acres was assigned to Capt. William^{2} Farrar and Thomas Ligon, 3 Oct. 1664, in Henrico on the south side of James River "in Mount Malada [Mount My Lady] field, against a place where an old oven stood."[21] This land, reported deserted by 22 July 1671, was regranted to Mr. Henry Randolph.[22]

He was captain of militia by 17 Sept. 1655[23] and in 1661 was captain of the company from Turkey Island Creek to the falls on the north side of James River (except Curles).[24] He was a justice of Henrico County by 1 Aug. 1657[25] and served as a member of the House of Burgesses from Henrico, 1660 and 1661–76.[26] His will, 6 May 1676–Feb. 1677/8,[27] left land to sons William, John and Thomas, the last two under age, but did not name his daughters. He also left to his brother Capt. John^{2} Farrar two tracts of land at

Capt. Davis' bottom, totaling 500 acres, if John^{2} would relinquish land formerly given him, called Coles' Field. Accordingly, 1 Feb. 1677/8, John^{2} Farrar deeded back to the heirs of Col. William^{2} Farrar the 200 acres given him in 1649.[28]

He married Mary —— who was mentioned as administratrix of his estate 20 Aug. 1682.[29]

Issue: 5. WILLIAM^{3}; 6. THOMAS^{3} 7. Martha^{3}, born 1665, married Walter Shipley of Charles City County, sub-sheriff, April 1678,[30] and mentioned there, Feb. 1685/6;[31] 8. Cicely^{3};[32] 9. JOHN^{3}.

5. WILLIAM^{3} FARRAR (William^{2}, William^{1}), deposed, 20 Feb. 1681/2, he was aged 24 and, March 1710/11, he was aged about 50.[33] He was a justice of Henrico, 1685–1715, sheriff, 1690–92, 1712–13, captain of militia, 1698, and member of the House of Burgesses, 1700–02.[34] He married (1), 1680, Priscilla Baugh, daughter of William Baugh, Jr., and his wife Jane, later Mrs. Jane Gower, who in her will, 7 Dec. 1710–Jan. 1710/11, made bequests to her grandchildren William, Abell and Priscilla Farrar.[35] He married (2), 1707, Mary (Tanner) Ligon, widow of 5. William^{3} Ligon (see HARRIS, Thomas), who was granted administration on his estate, 3 April 1721.[36] He held 700 acres in Henrico County, 1704.

Dear Hazel:

This is devoted entirely to the family name. It is perfectly clear to me, but whether I can communicate my thinking to others is an entirely different matter

The root name NUN is one of the most ancient, going back to the father of JOSHUA, a contemporary of MOSES. The Bible, Exodus 33:11 Numbers 28:18. Incidentally NUN means Fish.

We can definitely state that the variants of NUNNALLY/NUNNERY as used today, is an attempt to define the phonetic sounds of the name as used in England, such as NONEILY, NUNELY, NUNRY, etc. My spelling of the name is simply a stabilized form adopted by a large group originally in Eastern Tidewater and later Piedmont, Virginia. In its present form it was not so used in England. By far the largest group using the spelling NUNNALLY develope om Henrico - Chesterfield Co: Virginia area; and now a part of Metropolitan Richmond. One telephone book of Richmind indicates 9 NUNN; 3 NUNNALLIE: 1 NUNNELLEY; 1 NUNNERY and 10 NUNNALLY.

There were many different spellings used to apply to the same family and the same man in the early days of our country, as I will illustrate .ater. Apparently exact spelling was not very important as long as the particular person was identified. In the marriage returns of Ame;oa Co, Va a Minister with a very short name signed the M.Rec. with several different signatures of the same name.

While the large group developing the Chesterfield settled on the name of NUNNALLY, others moving into other areas as individuals, particually South into N C found themselves either spelling the name or having others do it for them as NUNNERY and NUNNALLE, etc. As their families develope in size, their spelling became established for their branch of the Clan. Moving into this area of Arkansas in 1926 and being the only Nunnally here for more than 25 years, and the natives being totally unfamiliar with the name. I can vough for the fact it has been rendered in every known spelling. I can easily understand how different variations occur.

The clincher of proof that NUNNALLY - NUNNERY in this country are from the same original families is in the records whereby the same man in more than one instance is indicated by both names by their contemporaries: viz

Your record May 1st VA 973 M 2 cp 1841 - WM NUNNERY at Dinwiddie Co, pensioner age 84. This is the same Wm Nunnally shown as brother of Daniel Nunnally both as pensioners in Dinwiddie Co, Va - (Natl Archives)

Obediah NUNNALLY who died in Caswell Co N C and who served with second Va Militia according to N C Court and Nat.Archives Records, is ;isted in Gwathmey's Register as NUNERY.

THOMAS NUNNERY purchases acreage in CUMBERLAND CO VA - THOMAS NUNNALLY sells the acreage in Cumberland Co,Va.

19th July 1792 Archelaus NUNREY and Elizabeth HOPPER dtr of Tabitha Hopper married Goochland Co DB 16 p 130 MR p.49 29th Jan 1811 Elizabeth Harper Nunnally widow of Archelaus NUNNALLY married in Powhatan Co,Va page 68

Incidentally Thomas NUNNERY purchased ;and in Cumberland above, the witness signed as ARCH. NUNNALLY.

Major Perkins ' Letter September 18, 1966
C. C. to- Mrs. C.Haynes Grant

Dear Hazel:

Thanks for the material mailed me on Sept 6. I was very much disappointed that you made no reference to the questions asked in my last letter and on several previous occasions. Presume you will answer when you have the time.

I have spent considerable time digging into the spelling of the name and how the NUNNERY originated. From such facts as I can gather you and your sister may be interested in the following, which I believe reasonable and probable:

It is believed that the branch of the Nunnally family of Tidewater Virginia which moved in due time into North Carolina, and other Southern States using the name NUNNERY, had name changed largely by the spelling used by the Clerk of the Records of Nottoway Parish of Amelia County, for following reasons:

It is established that prior to 1755 a Joseph was resident of Amelia County in Parish of Raleigh. Amelia County Deed Book 5 page 389 23Oct 1755 Joseph purchased 104 acres in Nottoway from James Crowder who had patented this land. Now Joseph was literate, having a clear and distinct signature in which every letter can always be definitely determined and he without exception signed his name JOSEPH NUNNERLEE. The clerk, one Samuel Cobbs, entered the name on the deed five times and in all cases wrote it JOSEPH NUNNEREE.

28 May 1767, Joseph having become a resident of St.James Parish the County of Mecklenburg sold the land in Nottoway Parish to Ambrose Lipscomb; Amelia D.B. 9 PP 138,139,140. In these three pages the Clerk Henry Peachy, listed the name six times, the first four as JOSEPH NUNNEREE - the last two as JOSEPH NUNLEY. Each time Joseph signed it was clear and distinct JOSEPH NUNNERLEE.

It is rather apparent that probably prior to these transactions there may have been others of the family in the area and the County Records were showing the NUNNERY as the local Clerks assumed the sound (to them) to be.

As members of the family moved on South some of this branch may have carried papers and documents with them that indicated the name and pronunciation to be NUNNEREE AND BEING SO PRONOUNCED came to be spelled NUNNERY.

It is also significant that while Joseph himself carried the sound Nunnally as Nunnerlee, his son Obediah is the only Rev. soldier in the Virginia Records shown other than Nunly, Nunnally, etc- he being listed as ABE NUNRY. It should be noted that Obediah was a resident of Amelia, later Nottoway until a few years before his death in 1822. In 1816 he moved to Caswell County to live with members of family, or to be in same area as those who preceded him. The first may have been in North Carolina many years but there was apparently a family connection.

Signed M. P. NUNNALLY

Gladys- This is copy of the chart M.P.drnymr and I abstracted some of the dates snf information for our benefit and inserted it. It gives us a good picture of where Anderson comes in.I felt all along, that I was SURE we would at some time tie up (?) Richard- ? Anderson? or Obediah, for they had all been listed at one time or another as NUNNERY. It is beginning yo look more hopeful, but still a mystery surrounds it.

This "John" believed to be son o
JOSEPH and bro of OBEDIAH Nunnally all three in Rev.War.
Obediah mentioned as heir at law of his father JOSEPH in Rev.rec.
He proved all this and rec'd warrants 2635 and 2636.
Joseph's death is confirmed im
Natl Archives. Records prove Joh
